SPLENDID MUSICAL SHOW COMING

Crist and Costa's clever musical revue the, "Dancing Kewpie Dolls", will be the attraction to appear at the Majestic Theatre, Tuesday night, Sept. 7th and this unusual organization, comes to Ontario highly recommended, as an offering far above the average aggregation of this kind touring this country. The "Dancing Kewpie Dolls" are presenting the latest style of musical show and one that is on the plan of the feature attractions appearing on the Orpheum and Pantages Circuits, which have gained such popularity with the theatergoers in the past few seasons. Their revue is said to contain bits, taken from successes in New York, and their offering may be termed as Odds and Ends of 1920, for only the cream of the good shows have been selected. In the east are some of the most versatile musical comedy players, who include such well known players as, Merrill La Valle, Albert McDonald, Lillian Leslie and Dorothe De Vers and these principals are supported by a chorus of peppery, gingery and good graceful and shapely beauties as well. There are some ten vaudeville numbers introduced throughout the action of the play and many of them are repeatedly encored by the enthusiastic audiences.
 The company is said to carry a most beautiful stage setting and the costumes are also said to be gorgeous and their pretty chorus girls know how to wear them correctly. It has the atmosphere of a two dollar attraction and their entertainment is pleasing and enjoyable throughout. A five reel feature will be shown in conjunction with the program.
 The "Dancing Kewpie Dolls" will play a limited engagement of one night only. First show starts 6:45, Second show 9 P. M., the price of admission will be advanced to 35c for children and 65 for adults.
