PEACE CONFEREES TRANSFER TO RIGA

Russians Accept Polish Request to Shift Place of Meeting From Minsk.

Warsaw.—The Russian soviet government has accepted the Polish proposal for transfer of the Russo-Polish peace negotiations from Minsk to Riga, it was announced in a Moscow wireless message to the Polish government.

Reports reached Warsaw that little progress had been made at the Minsk conference and that it had been agreed to shift the negotiations in the hope of bettering conditions generally.

The Poles apparently are planning no advance beyond the ethnographic frontier as mentioned in the American note, to which the Poles have replied. The front rests roughly along the line laid down by the allies. There are indications that the Polish eastern line is being stabilized temporarily and the general staff has directed that there be no advance into districts where the Poles might not be welcomed.

The military authorities announced that the Poles were resting and regrouping after pushing the soviet forces beyond the Bug, where they are prepared to make a stand if attacked.

Polish artillery has decimated the principal column of retrograde soviet forces in the northeastern front, said an official statement. More than 600 men, including two general staff officers and 11 line officers, have been captured. Among the killed was the commander of the 57th bolshevik division and his chief of staff.

CONFIRM DEATH OF CZAR AND FAMILY

London.—All possible doubts that former Emperor Nicholas of Russia and his family were assassinated in the basement of their prison house at Ekaterinburg on the night of July 18, 1918, seems to be dispelled by accounts of two independent investigators published here. One is printed by the London Times and was written by its former Petrograd correspondent, Robert Wilton. The other appears in the magazine "Nineteenth Century and After," and is from the pen of Captain Francis McCullagh of the British army. Both spent several weeks at Ekaterinburg and talked with natives and soldiers who witnessed the affair through the windows of the house. Both writers agreed on the important details of the story.

The victims, they say, numbered 11, being the former emperor, his wife, son and four daughters, Dr. Botkin and three servants. The assassination was arranged by Yurovski, jailer in charge of the deposed royal family and was carried out by 12 soldiers. The Times account says these were Letts, but Captain McCullagh declares they were Magyars, placed on duty instead of a Russian guard.

THE FALSE ROAD

Enid Bennett makes a winsome and appealing crook in her latest Thomas H. Ince picture, "The False Road," which will open for a day's run at the Dreamland Theatre on Wednesday, September 8th.

The role is one of the most novel that the pretty star has had in a long time. She is Betty Palmer, member of a New York underworld gang. In love with "Pickpocket" Roger Moran, she goes to meet him when he is released after a two years' term at Sing Sing and is amazed to hear him say that he intends to go straight. Roger leaves her and secures a position with the local banker at a small New England town. Thither Betty and a confederate journey to rob the bank of Roger's employer. They accomplish the burglary successfully. Roger follows them to New York and, by a ruse, is able to return the money. Moreover, Betty listens to his pleas at last and decides to desert "the false road" and marry him.

Miss Bennett has added safe-blowing to her list of accomplishments. She is an adept, as she proves in the picture. It helps to make her portrayal of the girl-crook convincing. Lloyd Hughes, shortly to be starred by Mr. Ince, is excellent as the leading man. Wade Boteler and Lucille Young are also in the cast. C. Gardner Sullivan wrote the story, and the photoplay was directed by Fred Niblo. It is a Paramount Arctcraft release.

High Prices

High prices mean cheap dollars. Cheap dollars induce speculation. Speculation is fine so long as prices soar—but look out for the DROP.

Here is our advice in times like these: Avoid debt, for the debtor may have to pay back these cheap dollars with dear ones. Avoid speculation. Above all, SAVE, now while money is plentiful and prices are soaring. The cheap dollars of the present will be more valuable some day. Grab them now and hold onto them. It is the chance of a lifetime to save. Use our Bank as a depository. Every dollar entrusted to us will be carefully safeguarded.
