 The Annual Session of our Conference held at Canyon City, Oregon, was the best we have held for several years. A new arrangement of the three Districts was made whereby Nyssa, Vale and Ontario now belong to the Boise District with Rev.

W. M. Ewing, superintendent. In accordance with the request of the people Rev. W. J. Luscombe was returned to Ontario for another year.

SEED WHEAT CERTIFIED
 About a fourth of the 10,000 acres of wheat examined for certification in Wasco county qualified, reports E. H. Jackson, county agent, in the Wasco County Farm Bureau News. Inspection was made by G. R. Hyslop, professor of farm crops at O. A. C., and Mr. Jackson. The certified fields had from one-fiftieth of one per cent to two per cent mixtures. Mixtures cut down yield and price. A list of growers of certified seed is published in the August number of the News, The Dalles, Oregon.

BEE DISEASES COSTLY
 Bee diseases cause a loss of more than 2 million dollars yearly in honey alone in the United States, says H. A. Scullen, bee specialist at O. A. C. The loss in bees and equipment is nearly as great.
