It's a Pleasure to Cook Electrically

Have you ever been in a kitchen where an Electric Range was in use? Did you notice how clean—how spick and span everything was?

No smoky walls, no ashes spilled over the floor. Even the bottoms of every pot and kettle were as bright as when they were new.

And the work an Electric Range saves! There is no fire to tend and regulate. You simply turn a switch and you have the exact temperature you desire.

There are a dozen other electric cooking appliances to add to the convenience of your home. You must come in and see our display of toasters, percolators, grills, chafing dishes, hot plates. You will enjoy just looking them over.

When the recipe says "milk" use Carnation. It is the most economical milk for cooking and is remarkably convenient. One half water, one half Carnation is the correct formula for cooking and drinking. For desserts and in coffee, use rich, creamy Carnation undiluted. Buy this good milk regularly from your grocer.
