

FRUITLAND BENCH NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Wells are the parents of a little daughter, born at Holy Rosary Hospital, Friday, September 24th.

Rev. Van Dusen on Monday went to Gooding and Boise on business.

Mr. Walter West, of McKeesport, Pa. arrived Saturday evening, called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. C. C. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Powell came in from Corvallis, Oregon, last week to attend the funeral of the mother, Mrs. C. C. Powell.

R. G. Wilson arrived home early Monday morning from Long Beach, California, where he has been visiting for the past four months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dalzell and sons, Mrs. L. H. Rich and Mr. Ray Rich went to Boise to attend the auto races at the State Fair.

Mrs. Gertrude Young is at home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pardur.

Payette County fruit growers carried off fifty first prizes at the Idaho State Fair, thirty-eight second prizes and eight third prizes, for the fruit exhibit and it will be seen that in the Boys and Girls judging classes Payette County carried off a number of prizes. It is a good ad for the little county of Payette.

Among those attending from here were the families of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Graham, J. F. Carrozza, S. J. Phillips, Henry Manser, William Lambert, M. J. Puchert, Harry Manser, Amos, N. A. Peacock, Browlix, P. D. Bosson, M. Thode, C. W. Young, Ir. Dabell, L. H. Rich, C. H. Stewart, Grant Fisher, F. M. Gardner, H. Wate, F. E. Johnson, Mrs. D. L. Inman, Mrs. Pearl Peterson, Howard Manser, Milton Carneff.

Payette County Fourth
Miss Ruth Rhoads of Fruitland had the honor of accompanying to Boise two Fruitland young ladies, Misses Ruth Raines and Fay Alms, the demonstrators of the Fruitland Canning and Baking Clubs of the Boys and Girls Clubs, as well as some young ladies from Payette and New Plymouth. They went to Boise last Monday morning and returned Saturday. Miss Thode states that the keen competition from all over the state but she insists that Payette County has fine young women to demonstrate the work. With Miss Raines and Miss Alms demonstrating the baking of biscuits they won for Payette County fourth place in the state among the other counties. As there are forty-four counties it really speaks well for the Fruitland girls and we are proud of them. They have had a total of 400 credit or bakings which shows the interest they have taken. Miss Ruth Raines also carried off the honor of receiving enough points to make her second in the state in the line of judging bread. Payette County is small in size and number but makes up in quality.

Dies At Home In Corvallis
The community was shocked and saddened Wednesday when the news was given out of the death of Mrs. Jennie A. Powell, wife of C. C. Powell, which occurred Tuesday evening about seven o'clock, caused by a stroke of apoplexy, when she was seen to fall at the gate of her home in Corvallis, Oregon. She had passed away before any one could reach her side.

Jennie A. Powell was born in Salem, Pennsylvania, September 12, 1857, and died in Corvallis, Oregon, Tuesday evening, September 28, 1920, aged sixty-three years and fifteen days. In 1883 she was married to Walter L. West, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, he having died in 1885. One son was born to the first marriage. In 1887 she was married to Charles C. Powell, of Plattburg, Missouri. To them were born two sons, C. K. and Harry. They resided in Missouri twenty-two years then moved to Colorado where they lived two years and in 1911 they with their family moved to Payette where they have since resided, until March of this year when they went to Corvallis, Oregon for Mr. Powell's health.

The body was brought to Payette Thursday morning last, accompanied by the husband and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Powell, awaiting the arrival of her son, Mr. West from McKeesport, who arrived Saturday evening.

A husband and three sons and five grandchildren survive.
The funeral services were held

Sunday afternoon in the M. E. Church Payette, and the sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. Clyde Walker, assisted by the pastor of the Fruitland M. E. Church, Rev. Van Dusen. The body was interred in the Ontario cemetery, Ontario, Oregon, surrounded by a host of loving friends and the family and an abundance of flowers as a token of esteem and love.

Mrs. Powell endeavored herself to all who knew her. Hers was a bright sunny nature and her helpfulness and cheery spirit will be missed by many and the niche in the home never filled. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family.

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN"

A NEW MARK TWAIN-PARAMOUNT ARTCRAFT PICTURE

"Every time Pap got money he got drunk; and every time he got drunk he raised Cain; and every time he raised Cain he got jailed."

THEN one day Huck escaped—headed his boat down the Mississippi—floated into a vagabond realm of adventure that has made his name immortal.

All in this marvelous picture! Mark Twain's greatest story, re-created on the screen. See it—Sure!
