

JUNTURA RANCH DEAL MADE

Many Wellknown Oregonians Stop off at Juntura—What Junturians are Doing.

W. H. Jeffreys closed the deal during the week by which he becomes owner of the ranch of forty acres, five miles down the river which belonged to O. A. Richey. A number of months ago, Mr. Jeffreys had a five room Al-laden house shipped out from the East which he has had stored awaiting a suitable place to erect it. He has begun the construction of this house and it will be ready for occupancy soon. Meanwhile his mother Mrs. Mattie Jeffreys is the house guest of Mrs. H. W. Welcome.

Did everyone see the interesting story about Juntura in the Sunday Oregonian by Addison Bennett?

Mr. and Mrs. William Althow of Beulah were Juntura visitors on Friday, also William Robertson of Otis. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sizemore and Mr. Sizemore's mother of Beulah were shopping in Juntura last Thursday.

Andrew Graham, who has spent the last ten days in Riverside looking after the Vale Trading Co. store there returned home on Monday.

Dean Vincent, Vice-President of the Portland Trust Co. of Oregon was a visitor in town last week, making a trip to the L. N. Stallard ranch on business.

Mrs. L. P. Deisole left Thursday morning for a visit of a few days in Payette at the home of her sister. Her mother, Mrs. Walsh arrived on Wednesday afternoon from Payette to take charge of the household during her absence. Mrs. Walsh returned home on Tuesday morning and her daughter came in on the afternoon train.

Mr. J. B. McCulloch was a Juntura visitor last Wednesday arriving with Congressman N. J. Sinnott who left immediately for Burns with William Hanley and Addison Bennett of the Portland Oregonian. Mr. McCulloch returned to Ontario on Tuesday.

David Graham and William Jones visited the Oster ranch above Beulah on Thursday.

A ten pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Graham on Oct. 19.

Stanley Asp of Otis was a Juntura Visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edmundson are visiting this week at the Masterson ranch, and Lloyd and Ralph are spending a few days deer hunting.

H. D. Churchill has resigned his position at the Jones ranch to take charge of the lunch counter at the Pool Hall.

Donald Masterson has resigned his position as assistant cashier of the Bank and has accepted a position with Ben Jones.

The Townsite House which has been supervised by Mrs. C. A. Wetterstrom will be closed on November 1st, and the employees of the ranch will live at the old South place. Mr. and Mrs. Wetterstrom are planning to build a residence on the lots south of the Townsite House.
