

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce right now, just before Christmas, The Greatest Sweeping Reduction Sale of the Season. We are placing the greater part of our stock on sale, consisting of Ladies' Suits, Ladies' Coats, Ladies' Dresses, Men's Suits, Men's Overcoats, Leather Vests and Mackinaws. Many lines of Dress Goods, Outing Flannels, Blankets and all Christmas Goods.

This is not only a Readjustment and Clearance Sale, but also a Removal Sale, before we move into our quarters which we have been building the last year which will be by far the most up-to-date business plant between Portland, Oregon, and Boise, Idaho. And not wishing to move one single piece of merchandise of broken lines we are making these sweeping reductions.

Look for the hand bills telling of the many lines that have been cut for this special Sale. Visit this sale every day until Christmas, it will save you many dollars.

Remember the date---Friday, December 10 and until we close Christmas Eve.

BULLY CREEK

BIG HAY SALE REPORTED IN BULLY CREEK REGION

Bully Creek School Budget is Increased—Last of Threshing is Completed—Thank-giving Program Pleases—Other News

J. J. Dickerson made the first hay sale of the season when he closed a deal for several hundred tons, this week, with Rufino Arrian of West-fall.

A special school meeting was held Saturday, November 27, at which it was voted to increase the school budget over that of last year and to meet the increase by levying a special tax.

Ted and Acle Gunderson, who have been visiting old friends here for the past week, returned Wednesday to their home at Deitrich, Idaho.

Mr and Mrs. E. P. Hendrix are busy moving into the house formerly occupied by the Pruitt family.

The Bully Creek school gave a Thanksgiving program last week that was well attended.

Mervin Dickerson spent his Thanksgiving vacation in Vale, at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Johnson.

The last threshing of the year took place last week when Richard Galloway's rye was threshed.

Messrs. Alexander and Birch, who have been working on their nitrate claims, for the past six weeks left Tuesday for their homes in Vale.

B. C. Struthers, Richard Galloway and E. P. Hendrix returned from Brogan last week, with the thresher, and say that their threshing is finished for this year.

Miss Derce Dearborn spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her relatives in Ontario.
