KINGMAN KOLONY PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION MEETS

Means For Serving Hot Lunches Discussed—Dr. and Mrs. Smith Given Surprise Party—Cow Is Organized

The first meeting of the year of the Parent-Teacher Association was moderately well attended. The ways and means of providing the hot school lunch was the main subject. It was decided that the dishes, cutlery, and vegetables would be as nearly as possible, donated. Anyone who has anything which they wish to contribute should notify Mrs. Pritchett, Martha Overstreet, or Mrs. DeBord. A report will be made at the meeting Friday, December tenth, at three o'clock at the school building. Everyone interested in the school and betterment of the community is included and needed.

The Reverend Shields held his morning service. He announced that he will continue meeting the Kolony congregation the first Sunday of the month throughout the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed and family have arrived from Elko, Nevada, and are at the Shafer home for a few days, while the carpenters and well-drillers have possession of Mr. Reed's recently purchased place.

Mrs. Maxwell and Miss Corinne Maxwell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler in New Plymouth this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingman and Miss Florence Kingman were dinner guests at the Greeling home Sunday. There was a small attendance at the school meeting Wednesday evening, however, two thousand dollars additional tax was voted.

The Kolony residents are trying to do their part toward the control of tuberculosis by purchasing the Red Cross Christmas seals, which are available here this week.

Four new students were transferred to the school Monday: John Clascok from Owyhee, and Ruby, Ella, and Chester Reed from Elko, Nevada.

The teachers and children are preparing a Christmas program to be presented Christmas Eve. Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Martin started to Nyssa and Ontario Saturday afternoon, but found such bad roads that they came back. Most of the traffic is diverted from Nyssa to Parma.

The Kingman-Powell hay has been sold to Phillip Coyne, a sheepman, for $8 per ton. Mr. Keane has purchased 100 tons of the Burroughs' hay and is baling it now.

Messrs. Harry and Eddie Powell received two valuable collie dogs from Los Angeles this week.

F. T. Morgan, Harvey Otis and A. V. Roberts met with Mr. Hall in Nyssa for the drainage meeting Tuesday evening.

Harry Powell received third prize at the Portland Corn Show.

William Edwardson has been taken to Boise hospital, where he is suffering from a fractured hip, which is a result of a recent run away.

A rousing game of baseball was played between the men and the boys Friday afternoon on the new school diamond.

H. Walters has purchased the Geo. Schweitzer and Loy cattle, and is receiving and branding the cattle preparatory to their being taken to the various feed grounds.

William Perkins went thru Sunday with seven or eight hundred cattle which he will feed in Big Bend, and Adam Murray from Juntura brought sheep to feed on the Slippy ranch.

F. F. Pratt is incapacitated this week on account of a kick he received, while helping to brand cattle.

In a letter recently received from A. D. McGrey, who has lately motored to California, he states that the drive was very pleasant, but that he has seen no place in Oregon or California which compares with Snake River Valley for agriculture. Mr. Morrey says, "Outside of the climate, Snake River Valley has California beat."

L. R. Breithaupt, county agriculturist, met with the men of the Kolony this week to make arrangements for ordering a car load of Jerseys from the coast. The auction sale will occur after the cows arrive. Mr. Breithaupt, and S. P. Graham, live stock improvement chairman, are going to select the cattle, and the Kolony is going to send C. M. Beaumont, who is a judge of cattle.

A hastily assembled group gave Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Richard a surprise house warming Friday evening. Four tables of progressive Five Hundred were played, until delicious tea cream and cake and coffee were served. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Kingman, Mr. and Mrs. Overstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Greeling, Mr. and Mrs. Hickox, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. H. R. Scott, Misses Kingman, Martin and Overstreet, and Messrs. H. R. Scott, Merrit Greeling, Maurice Judd, and Robert Overstreet.
