

KINGMAN KOLONY

Mr. and Mrs. Calkins arrived from Eugene, Oregon Friday to spend Christmas with their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan.

Miss Helen Scott arrived Christmas Eve for a visit with her mother, Mrs. H. R. Scott. Miss Scott has recently returned from Europe, where she has spent several years. She has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Egan, in Sioux City, since her arrival in the United States.

Frank B. Steen arrived Christmas Eve to spend the holidays with his sister, Mrs. E. F. Pratt. Mr. Steen is on his return to his home on the coast, after an extended trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowell, Mr. and Mrs. Kingman, Miss Kingman, Mr. Harva Otis, Mr. W. E. Edwards, and Mr. Robert H. Overstreet attended the services held for Mrs. Vanderpool at the Baptist church in Ontario Thursday.

D. W. Johnson spent the Christmas holidays in Parma with his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. O. Q. Johnson were also guests at the Anderson home Christmas.

Mr. Pritchett spent several days with his family during the holidays. Miss Neeb spent Christmas at her home in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Zetrelin made a business call in Vale Thursday.

The Kingmans entertained the Blodgett family from Nyssa and the Peck family from Big Bend Christmas.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith entertained the Martin family Christmas.

The Shafer family were guests at Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pratt entertained Messrs. Frank Steen, George O. Glascock, Webb Otis and Harva Otis at dinner Christmas.

Little Opal Powell is quite ill this week. Dr. Numbers is attending the case.

Eddie Powell spent Christmas holidays with his parents.

Mr. Eldridge and Miss Blanche Eldridge have returned from Washington to visit the Moses family.

The marriage of Miss Eileen Peck and Joseph Bruning was solemnized at the Catholic parish house in Caldwell at high noon Wednesday, the twenty-ninth of December. Only members of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kingman and Miss Kingman were guests from the Kolony. Miss Peck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peck, who resided in the Kolony several years previous to their living in Big Bend. Miss Peck is a pleasing violinist, and both the bride and bridegroom played in the Kolony orchestra. Both are well known and have the best wishes of their host of friends. They will reside in Big Bend, where Br. Bruning is employed.

The last Passion Play giving the life of Christ was shown at the school building Tuesday evening. Miss Bernice Martin pleased the audience with two vocal solos, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGinnis won much applause after playing the banjo and singing.

Harry Newby was hurt last week, when he attempted to crank the obstinate trenching machine. Several stitches were necessary, and Mr. Newby is recuperating in Nyssa.

H. Walters' sheep are now on the Walters' and Pratt's Kolony ranches, and Mr. Page has charge of the sheep. Mr. Walters made one of his frequent trips into the Kolony Thursday.

Eugene Pratt and Bruce Walters took some cattle to Vale Wednesday and will bring other cattle back.

The annual meeting of the Kingman Kolony irrigation company will be held at the school house at ten o'clock January eighth.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association has been postponed from the afternoon of the seventh of January to the fourteenth because of the stage preparations for the evening concert.

C. M. Beaumont is expected to bring the carload of Jerseys in from the coast Thursday, the thirteenth. Professor Pittz, head of the dairy department at O. A. C. and a recognized authority in the west, took the place of L. B. Breithaupt in the selection of the cows. This ought to introduce a good dairy stock in the Kolony for each cow is accompanied by a record and health certificate. The auction sale will be held Thursday January 6, at the C. M. Beaumont farm.

Tickets will be on sale Saturday, January first, for "Ye Old Time Concert", which will be presented at the school building by the Roswell chorus under the auspices of the Kolony P. T. A. The school rooms when thrown together will accommodate approximately two hundred persons. Tickets, which are $5 and $15 may be obtained from Mrs. Greeling, Mrs. Martin, Holley Bros., or Martha Overstreet in the Kolony. In Owyhee Mrs. Biglow and Mrs. DeFord will have charge of the tickets, and some one will be asked to sell them in Big Bend.

School Notes
The serving of hot lunches has progressed very nicely. The following committee are serving these two weeks: Buckets: Merritt Greeling, Ted Gruver, Vernon McGinnis, Richard Smith. Cooking: Mary McGinnis, Zena Moses, Eyleyn DeBord, Amy Sinclair, Juanita Biglow, Ruby Reed. Serving: Richard Smith, Vernon McGinnis, Barbara Pritchett, Anna Schweitzer, Dorothy Parsons, Avery Christiansen, James Driscoll, Verna Hite. Dishes: Eugene Pratt, Cecil Smith, Mildred DeBord, Wilson Pritchett, Gerald DeBord, Merritt Greeling, Gladys McGinnis, Ted Gruver.

Margaret Ann Morgan is back in school after several weeks absence.

The teachers and school children entertained with a program Christmas Eve. A Christmas tree and candy treat for all were features of the evening. Eleven girls represented fairies, and brought good cheer. Two plays, a boy's dialogue, and a beginners drill were given, and Billy Parsons, Eugene Pratt, Agnes Nichols, Helen Powell, Ella Reed, and Opal Powell gave recitations.

ARCADIA

Are you going? Where? To the Revival.

DREWSEY

Miss Helen Anderson teacher of the Wolf Creek school above Drewsey is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Jim Anderson at Ontario.

Miss Velyn Beyerly and Henry Richardson attended the Milldale dance Christmas evening.

Montie Dunten and Glen Sitz who have been attending the Ontario high school are home spending the Christmas holidays with their parents.

The Kimball Flat school gave in the following report for their school until Christmas: Pupils on the honor roll for punctuality for the past four months are: Byron Dunten, George Guild, Zeta Dunten, Robert Blackburn, Loren Dunten, Eloise McMullen, Zelma Dunten, Viola Chambers, Turner Dunten, Laura Brooks and Lola Dunten. Those perfect in spelling for the entire term were Thomas Howard, second grade, age eight years, and Robert Blackburn, sixth grade, age eleven years. The second grade averaged 15 to 18 words in a lesson and the sixth grade averaged 20 words a lesson. This school has made 100 per cent in attendance and the teacher, Miss Olive Slater of Boise deserves lots of praise. A splendid program and Christmas box with presents for all, was held on the last day before the Christmas vacation.

Clifford Richard who has been seriously ill and had Dr. Hodges of Juntura to see him left this week for Ontario to see Dr. Carl Bartlett who is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. J. Bartlett at that place.

Mrs. J. D. Smith went to Ontario the first of the week to meet her two daughters, Misses Frances and Lucile Smith who were returning from the St. Teresa Academy at Boise where they have been attending school. They expect to spend part of the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bartlett of Ontario, coming home to Drewsey next week.

KANTLEEK
A Rexall PRODUCT

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

EVER been scalded by a leaking hot-water bottle? This can't happen with a Kantleek.

Kantleek Hot-Water Bags can't leak. They are "one-piece" water bags—moulded from pure soft rubber into a single piece—no joints or seams. Most hot-water bottles are made in sections and cemented. Cement cracks—bag leaks!

We guarantee a Kantleek for two years—or a new bag free.

Ask to see the Kantleek. You may need it tonight.
