BATTLES BAD ROADS MILES

Owyhee Folks Appreciate Mail Man's Efforts—Put Red Cross Clippings To Good Use—Owyhee Personals

The following pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the past month are: Monna and Nina Smith, Orville Bigelow, Fred Pullen, Alta Bradley, Elna Pullen, Charley Huffman and Guy Glenn in the upper room and Warren Baldwin, John Bigelow, George Huffman, Kenneth McDonald, James McEwen, Werner Pautz, Jesse Pullen, Della Schweizer, Len Schuler and Virgil VanFossion in the primary room.

Those from Owyhee who attended the dairy cow sale at the Kolony last week are: Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bigelow, D. P. Pullen, Fred Pullen, Chas. Bradley, and T. M. Lowe. Mr. Bigelow purchased a fine Jersey cow at the sale.

One of McEvens little twin girls was quite ill with pneumonia, last week but is much better now.

Mrs. Belle Bradley and Mrs. Martha B. Klingbaek met at Mrs. T. M. Lowe's Thursday where they sorted into numerous bundles the flannel scraps that were left from the Red Cross war sewing. The bundles of scraps to be divided among the ladies of the Parent-Teacher's Association, who will make them into quilt blocks to be put together and sold later.

Ben Smith was a guest to dinner at the F. L. DeBord home Friday.

Mrs. Merritt Greeling of the Kolony, called at the DeBord home Monday for a conference on Parent-Teacher work. Mrs. Greeling is chairman of the program committee.

Miss Carlotta Huffman, a Freshman at the Nyssa High School, spent the holidays at her home near Mitchell Butte and has not been able to return to school yet on account of the four younger children of the family being ill with whooping cough.

The mail carrier of route one from Nyssa, Barkley Wilson, surely deserves commendation from the patrons of his route for despite the bad weather and almost impassable roads he has made the route every day thus far, tho some of the roads out this way are in such bad condition that his faithful Ford got stuck and had to be hauled out several times.

T. M. Lowe was summoned to Vale Monday as a juror.

Vincenti Mendiola lately received a carload of corn at Adrian and has been hauling it to his ranch up the Owyhee to feed to sheep.

Refino Arrien is feeding a band of sheep in the Bradley pasture on hay purchased last year from D. P. Pullen. Mr. Arrien has hay left over from last year on the Bigelow and Schweizer ranches also. After feeding this he will take his sheep to his ranch at Westfall for the lambing season.

Wm. Perkins stopped over night at the Pratt home Thursday enroute from Vale to the Bend with a small bunch of cattle he had gathered up over there.

Wm. McEwen, who is feeding a band of sheep on the Bigelow ranch, took them to his place for sorting last week, returning the ewes to Bigelows for winter feeding.

H. Walters was sorting stock on the DeBord ranch Saturday taking a bunch to feeding grounds in the Bend.

John S. and Geo. Glascock, Henry Steppy, F. L. DeBord, Archie Sinclair and Donald and Vernon McGinnis put in several strenuous days last week improving the roads connecting with Owyhee hill.

A great deal of dissatisfaction and indignation is being expressed in this and the four neighboring communities concerning the rise in telephone rates and the toll charge between Nyssa and Ontario, lately established.

Joe Mendiola spent the week end at his brother's home up the Owyhee last week.

J. P. McGinnis was a business visitor to Nyssa Friday.

Miss Vera Neeb, primary teacher at the Kolony spent Sunday and Sunday night at the McGinnis home.

Miss Mildred DeBord spent Sunday night at the Klingbaek home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bigelow were Gate City visitors last Friday.

Carl Schweizer who has been in Ontario for some time was home for a few days last week.

Miss Verna Hite, who has been absent from school for a week or so, owing to the illness of her brother, Oral Hite, returned to school Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Smith was ill last week with a bad cold.

Mrs. John Wall came down from her home near Mitchell Butte, Monday. She and her little boys, John Jr. and Kenneth will stay with Mrs. T. M. Lowe, while Mr. Lowe is away on jury duty.

KINGMAN KOLONY RAINFALL FOR 1920 JUST AVERAGE

First Half of Year so Dry That Heavy Rains of December Just Evened Up—Other Kolony News Items

Although it seems we have been having an unusual amount of rain this year, the official records, which are kept by A. G. Kingman, show that rainfall is not above the average. The first half of the year was so dry that this unusual amount of rain only brings it to normal. The rainfall for the past eleven years has been between 6 and 10 inches averaging eight and one-half inches, and the annual summary of the records show eight and one-half inches this year.

Mrs. Conrad Martin went to Boise Thursday to spend several days with friends.

Dr. H. J. Smith, who sometime ago had the misfortune to cut his knee, has been compelled to give the knee a complete rest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morehead, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. MacLafferty, left Tuesday for Portland. The Misses Ruby and Marion Morehead will remain with their aunt, Mrs. MacLafferty.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson of Parma came New Years to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. Crouch.

Another shipment of fifty books has arrived for the library this time from the County Library. This splendid literature, which is especially interesting to grown people, may be secured at the library room in the school from Miss Kingman or Miss Elliott, the librarians.

We regret to announce that "Ye Old Time Concert" cannot be presented by the Roswell chorus this Friday because Roswell is having an epidemic of smallpox. However, the players will come later, and an announcement as to the date will be made as soon as possible.

A. Sinclair expects to leave the first of the week to affiliate himself again with McConnon Company as a traveling solicitor.

Charles Smith arrived from Twin Falls Monday evening to remain with his brother, Dr. Smith, until the Doctor is able to be out. It took Mr. Smith six days to bring a team of horses which he drove over for his brother.

Floyd Anderson and Roy Crouch were business callers in Caldwell Tuesday.

Herbert Walters was down from Mr. Walters' "Homewood" ranch in Baker county this week visiting friends.

Mrs. Ethel Martin spent a part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, before going to Walla Walla to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. MacLafferty entertained at a large dinner party this week. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. MacLafferty and family of Nyssa, Mr. E. L. MacLafferty and son Gordon of Owyhee, Mr. and Mrs. Crouch, and Mr. and Mrs. Morehead and daughters, who are visiting from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sinclair and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts of Big Bend for New Year's dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Martin entertained at a twelve o'clock New Years dinner. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Kingman, Miss Kingman, Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Richard Smith, the Misses Bernice and Jeanette Martin and the host and hostess.

Mrs. H. R. Scott and her daughter, Mrs. Robert R. Overstreet entertained at an informal reception for their daughter and sister, Miss Eileen Scott. The guests included friends that Miss Scott met here before going to Europe. Music and dancing were enjoyed by the guests and refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Miss Florence Kingman was the hostess New Years at a pleasant party in honor of Miss Marion Lowe, who is home from Whitman for the holidays. Five hundred was enjoyed during the evening, and the guests were partaking of delicious refreshments by candlelight, when the New Year arrived. The guests were the Misses Marion Lowe of Owyhee, Eileen Scott, and Martha Overstreet, and Messrs. Harry Otis, Robert Overstreet, Alfred V. Roberts, H. R. Scott, and Maurice Judd of Parma.

Mrs. Conrad Martin entertained Wednesday afternoon at a delightful kitchen shower for Miss Martha Overstreet. The rooms were very appropriately decorated, and several unique features made the afternoon most interesting. In the late afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. J. Smith and little Miss Jeanette

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Revival at the Baptist Church under the leadership of State Evangelist, Milo G. Bently is proving to be a blessing to all who attend. The interest and attendance are increasing with each service, and many are making their decision for Jesus Christ.

Mr. Bently presents the Gospel in a very illuminating and forceful manner, giving a reason for every statement and claim that is made.

The singing led by the large chorus choir is an inspiration and enjoyed by all.

The following subjects will be considered. Don't miss hearing them. Saturday, "Why men are un saved"; Sunday, Bible School at 10:00 A. M. Worship at 11:00, Subject, "Getting out of Egypt". Martin, served an elaborate luncheon. The guests departed feeling that it was one of the most pleasant social events of the season.

The emporium of Jerseys arrived at the Kolony Saturday morning, and several farmers are taking care of them until the sale, which will be held Thursday, January sixth. L. R. Breithaupt came Wednesday to be present, and Amos Miller of Caldwell will be the auctioneer. The men of the community believe the cows are of a high grade. C. M. Beaumont efficiently represented the Kolony in the selection and care of the Jerseys. He reports a rather tedious trip from the coast on accounts of the floods. Mr. Beaumont found the people of the coast section were greatly interested in this section and some consider moving to this part of the state.

School Notes

Henry Coleman transferred his loyalty from the Ontario High School to the Kolony Tuesday.

Johnny Glascock is in school after an absence of three weeks.

A splendid supply of apparatus and equipment (amounting to eighty-five dollars) for the General Science course was received for the school this week. The large variety of minerals will aid in the work. Among other additions is a suspension globe and two gasoline lamps.
