JEWEL CARMEN AS

A WINSOME CROOK Something unique in the line of picture plays will be presented at the Dreamland Theatre Saturday
when "The Silver Lining," a Metro release, starring Jewel Carmen, will be run.

It is a story which deals with the widely divergent careers of two girls, one brought up as a crook and the other as a society belle.

the other as a society belie.

As the lovely crook girl whose winsome ways and keen wits prove a ready foil for her victims, Jewel Carmen gives a wonderfully attractive portrayal.

"MADAME PEACOCK" IS MY GREATEST"

o Asserted Nazimova When Her Most Recent Picture Had Been Completed

All of the fascinating personality of Mme. Nazimova has found expression in her latest Metro production, "Madame Peaceck", when it was completed at the company's West Coast studios.

And the gifted screen star is con-

And the gifted screen star is convinced that her picture version of the story by Rita Weiman, which will be shown Thursday and Friday, March 3 and 4 at the Dreamland Theatre, will rank as her greatest work.

"I never felt more enthusiastic about a production than I do this one", she said after viewing the last foot of film in her private projection room. "I am sure it will rank with "Revelation", which I have felt was my most satisfactory picture thus far. This story simply told itself."

Never before has Mme Nazimova been provided with a story that gave her greater opportunities for use of her genius than in this production. In the dual role of pampered star who thinks only of her own success, then as the gifted hut inexperienced actress who rises to unexpected heights almost against her own will, she makes full use of her regal beauty and her ability to portray a sympathetic part convincingly.

For the opening scenes of the picture, a complete theater—stage, auditorium and dressing rooms—was erected on one of the big enclosed stages on Metro's lots. Not only was the threater of a size and only was the theater of a size and class with many of New York's best known play-houses, but it was designed, down to the last seat, to conform to the requirements of the story.

Two great golden peacocks formed the upper portion of the proscenium arch. The same proud bird spreads its features to form the boxes on either side of the stage, and the peacock theme is carried out in the panels that decorate the walls.
