ROYAL NEIGHBORS INITIATE
The Royal Neighbors initiated a class of nine Monday night. Supper was served by the Modern Woodmen, after which a musical program was given and impromptu talks by different members. The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors have changed the meeting nights from the second and fourth Mondays to the first and third Mondays in the month so as not to conflict with the meetings of the American Legion Post.

The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors will have another big time Monday, March 7th.

Kinney-Sackett
L. J. Kinney returned Sunday from a month's visit in Kansas City. He brought with him a bride who was formerly Miss Gladys Sackett of Kansas City. They will reside on Mr. Kinney's ranch about eight miles west of Ontario.

Madden-Chipman
Ruth G. Chipman and Joseph A. Madden, both of Ontario were married February 16th at Caldwell, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Madden returned to Ontario last week and will make their home here.

Mrs. Ivan Oakes was hostess this week to the Monday Bridge Club.

The Tuesday Bridge Club met this week at the home of Mrs. C. R. Emison.

Mrs. Earl Blackaby was hostess yesterday to the Wednesday Bridge Club.

Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Payne and Mrs. W. H. Brooke entertained the Carnation Club Tuesday evening at the home of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Powers are entertaining the Imperial Club this evening.

Mrs. L. Adam entertained very charmingly last week in honor of her two daughters, Mrs. Floyd Hagar of Cambridge, Idaho, and Mrs. H. E. Bills of Portland. Two afternoon card parties were enjoyed by a large number of friends, bridge being played on Friday and five hundred on Saturday.

The Girl's Friendly Society met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Wood. The girls dressed as their favorite actresses and a good time was enjoyed.

The Fortnightly Club met Saturday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Whitney.

The Woman's Club held a regular meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Looney.

The Catholic Altar Society met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. J. Clemo.

Master Francis Gallagher entertained a number of his friends Tuesday evening in honor of his ninth birthday.

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist Church held a social Friday evening at the church. A large crowd was present.

Mrs. J. A. Draper entertained the Congregational Ladies Aid Wednesday afternoon.

HEHO! HART FANS
Helgho! William S. Hart fans! This popular Paramount star is a crook, soldier, policeman and respected citizen by turns in "The Cradle of Courage" his latest Paramount photoplay which will be shown at the Majestic theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Hart has the role of "Square" Kelley, a safecracker of San Francisco who is reformed after two years service with the American troops in "the cradle of courage" in France. He becomes a policeman, brings his former accomplices in crime to justice and wins the love of a pretty girl. The story is exceedingly dramatic and the theme appealing, so that there is not a dull moment throughout the development of the story.

SQUARE AND COMPASS MEN GATHER FOR BIG SESSION
Ontario will entertain tonight 150 members of the A. F. and A. M. from Payette, Vale, and Nyssa, together with members of the local lodge. The session is to begin this afternoon, a banquet is to be served at 6:30 and the initiatory work continue during the evening.

OREGON SLOPE

A. M. Johnston has been ill the past week.

Mrs. Atteberry spent several days the past week visiting friends and relatives at Crystal.

Miss Blanche Culp is under the Doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Breithaupt were over from Ontario Saturday evening to attend the community gathering at the Park school house.

The W. L. Davis family had a siege of tonsillitis in their home.

Little Max Brown has the measles. Nettie Bartshe has been absent from school the past week with the measles.

Mr. Skippen's sister and her husband from Ontario, Canada, are visiting in the Skippen home.

Mrs. Joe Phillips from New Plymouth is visiting in the Otto Miller home.

Messrs. Lattig, Stimpson and Heslop attended the Jersey cow sale at Ontario Monday afternoon.

The farmers are enjoying their time and are graveling the road from Tomlin's to the canal.

The next club meeting will be at the Wisdom home with Mrs. Tomlin assisting, on March 10. The Wisdom family lives in the home formerly occupied by the Angus McDonald family.

Mrs. Low Idyll from Montour is visiting in the Skippen home.

The Stoneker family is moving to near Emmett this week.

The club ladies entertained the men and children of the community Saturday evening. The Park school house was made beautiful for the occasion with bright colored paper and baskets of pretty roses. There were several good readings and musical numbers but the main feature of entertainment was the mock wedding. This affair represented an event in Darkyland, the shady groom being Otto Miller while Lloyd Culbertson was the dusky bride and elaborately costumed for the occasion. Mr. Northrop as "Pason" performed the ceremony. Two pickaninies carried the bride's train while the event was enlivened by guitar and banjo music by Messrs. Lindsay and Murrell, two "colored Gemen". The brides cake was a beauty and tasted as good as it looked.

Another feature of the entertainment was given by twelve little girls dressed in yellow and white who went thru several pretty drills and wound and unwound the Maypole. A delicious two course lunch was served.
