

Voiles Make Lovely Dresses

There is an air of freshness, a suggestion of youth about a dainty voile dress that is charming. Every woman needs a voile dress for wear on a number of occasions for it is appropriate, cool and decidedly fashionable. Enchantress Voiles are inexpensive and developed in exclusive patterns of unusual beauty. You will find that the colors include the season's newest shades and combinations. See how nice this material drapes and how little it takes to make a smart dress. They are priced at,

50c. 65c. 75c. $1.00
$1.50, $2.00

Just received a new shipment of imported Organdies in colors and white.

NEW BLOUSES IN GALA EFFECTS

A radiant sweep of coloring announces the spring blouse displays. New shades are fascinating; soft fabrics retain their hold on public favor, and the Russian overblouse style has Fashion's sanction for this season. Be on hand before the choicest models have been claimed.

RADER BROS. CO.

FRUITLAND BENCH

NEW FRUITLAND PASTOR DRIVING OUT FROM IOWA

Times Have Changed From Early Circuit Rider — Parsons Now Drive Cars 200 Miles To New Churches—Other Fruitland News Notes

The Baptist Church gave a special program of music and recitations for Easter and a splendid crowd in attendance. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. The Church has tendered Rev. William Sanders, of Harlin, Iowa, a call to preach and he is driving through from there in his car.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coon entertained twenty members of the Mutual Benefit Club at their home on Pennsylvania Avenue. Rook was the game played and a good luncheon was served at a late hour.

Wednesday Mrs. Jake Decker served a noon dinner and covers were laid for Mrs. T. C. Taylor, of Woodriver, Nebraska, Mrs. Brocklehurst, of California, Mrs. W. A. Colwell.

Messrs. Frank and Joel Dalby invited a number of their friends Saturday to help them celebrate their joint birthdays. One was thirteen and one eleven years old that day. The mother gave the boys good eats which proved the real thing to them. They had a good time as all boys do at such places.

An unusually large congregation attended the Easter exercises at the M. E. Church Sunday morning. The church was decorated with Easter Lillies and potted plants and the program was splendid throughout and the music good. The offering was taken for missionary work.

Mrs. Daniel L. Ingard will arrive home this Thursday after a month's visit to New York City and Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Webber, formerly teacher of music and art of the Fruitland school, left Monday for Madison, Wisconsin, via Salt Lake and other points of interest enroute.

Rev. Chauncey Shamberger, Rev. J. E. Shamberger, Rev. and Mrs. Herschel Shanks H. A. Kauffman and Miss Ruby Kauffman and A. I. Eldredge went Monday to Nampa to attend a meeting of the Brethren members, representing the "Forward Movement" of the Church.

Mrs. H. W. Cole and daughters, Mrs. E. H. Loomis, and Misses Eva and Olive Cole arrived Sunday morning from Glenn Ellyn, near Chicago, Illinois, and are at the home of Mrs. Harry Thomas. Mrs. Cole and Mr. Loomis will arrive this week coming from Ogden, Utah by auto. They have come to make their home in the Payette Valley.

Miss Louise Hollister, National W. C. T. U. worker, will address a meeting Saturday evening at the Brethren Church. Everyone is cordially invited.

The Whitman College Glee Club and Jazz Band gave a most delightful program at the High School Auditorium Saturday night to a most appreciative audience. It was one of the best things heard here this winter. Howard Reed, of Payette, brother of Miss Reed, teacher in the high school here, delighted the audience with several baritone solos.

Friday afternoon about twenty-five children and friends surprised Mrs. Harry Powell reminding her of her eighth wedding anniversary. Most delicious cake, pineapple whip, home made candies were served by the ladies.

A large number of friends of Mrs. H. B. Strawn, who is slowly convalescing from several months of serious illness, on Saturday presented her with a crazy quilt, put together and worked, the blocks of which had been pieced by her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitsell, Mr. J. H. Whitsell motored to Emmett to spend Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitsell.

Mr. R. S. Kutch went to Caldwell this Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. B. F. Leavell. While there she will also go to Nampa on business, returning the last of this week.

Mrs. M. M. Hurst and two daughters have arrived home from a three months visit with relatives in Missouri. Mr. Hurst accompanied them as far as Rock Springs, Wyoming, and he will return to his home here the middle of this week.

Rev. Chauncey Shamberger of Chicago is here visiting his parents Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Shamberger. While here he is representing the "Forward Movement" in the Brethren Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Philip and children were guests Sunday of Mr. Sam Phillips and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crouch, of Emmett, were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris.

Miss Felicitus Hengeler is down from Baker spending Easter vacation.

The Baptist Ladies cleared about $65 at their supper and Easter apron sale.

The receipts from the apron and cooked food sale of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church were about $30.

There will be a meeting of the Mothers' Circle at the school house this Friday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all who might be interested in the work of the mothers.

Gus Davis was in Huntington Monday on business. He will ship some cattle and hogs down there this week to this market.

Delbert Baker and Miss Wilfong will sing a duet at the Mothers' meeting this Friday, there will also be special music by about fifteen young women from the High School. The winners of the prizes on the Cigarette question will be read at the meeting and the remainder of the program will be humorous and in keeping with April Fool's Day.

Miss Fern Linck was taken to Holy Rosary Hospital Saturday and operated upon for appendicitis and reports from the sick room say she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baldwin are the parents of a son, born March 21 at Everett Washington. The young man was named Robert Lee. Mrs. Baldwin was Miss Alice Pencock formerly of Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Davis were on Dead Ox Flat Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linkus.

Mrs. Cossie Branthoover and little daughter are installed in their own home after being away for the winter in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis were in Payette Sunday the guest of Mr. Lewis' mother, Mrs. Jay Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powell and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Madson motored to Weiser Sunday to the Larson chicken ranch to see the 1200 little chicks and the large White Leghorn flock. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis and family and Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Lewis also went to Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harris entertained at a large dinner party Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crouch and son, Carl, of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Chick Shirey and children, Tom Walker and family, Joe Divish and family.

The ball game Friday between Payette and Fruitland high schools played at Payette resulted in a score of 13 to 12 in Payette's favor.

ADRIAN NEWS

SURPRISE PARTY HELD AT ADRIAN SATURDAY NIGHT

Neighbors who With Host and Hostess Enjoy Evening—
Other Items of Interest
From Adrian.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Cone Saturday evening, those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fleetwood, Ralph and Frank Cone, Al Schafer, Anna Mae Cox, Ray, Loyd and Clarence Elliot, Eulalia Shafer, Thelma McCreary, Robert Ruddle, Orville Fleetwood, Martha Marshall and Odie Ashcraft.

Pat Conley is camped with a band of sheep near Adrian this week.

Mrs. Susie Romero is visiting her daughter Mrs. George Cooley of Parma this week.

Mr. Gill made a business trip to Nyssa Friday returning Saturday.

Pete Christensen is recovering from his illness being able to walk to Adrian now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ashcraft were guests over Easter Sunday at the home of the formers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashcraft.

Miss Evelalia Shafer and a school chum, Miss Anna Mae Cox were home from the Intermountain Institute to spend the week end and Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Gruver was shopping in Adrian Tuesday.

Thelma McCreary was the guest of Martha Marshall over Monday night.

Mrs. Susie Romero was a visitor at the Inos home Saturday evening.

Mr. Brockie was a business visitor in Adrian Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Ray and Clarence Elliot are busy hauling hay to Adrian station this week.

John Holly accompanied by Mr. Gill and Mr. Inos motored to Parma Saturday evening.

Mrs. McCreary, Mrs. Romero and Martha Marshall were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashfield for a lovely Easter Sunday dinner.

FOR SALE—Good seed Barley cheap. Hay first cutting, $8 a ton, second cutting $7 a ton. Two miles straight west of town. John Molenaar. 15-18 p.

FOR SALE—Good R. 1. Red eggs $1.00 setting of 15 eggs. Lester Turner. Phone 48-J. 16-23 p.

FOR SALE—12 Good milk cows, Jerseys and Holsteins; 1 brood sow and some shoats; 2 calves. Phone 223-J or Call Argus. 16-17 p.

Samuel Goldwyn & Rex Beach
Present
REX BEACH'S
famous story
THE NORTH WIND'S MALICE
Directed by
Carl Harbaugh & Paul Bern

DREAMLAND Friday & Saturday

Matinee Saturday

$10 For Your old Washer During April

The old machine has served its day. Cash it in for $10 toward the purchase of a new and you can buy it on special terms of $10 down and $10 a month.

Automatic Electric Washer

or a Standard Electric Iron FREE

If you haven't an old washer to trade in we will give with the purchase of an Automatic Electric Washer: One standard electric house iron and a Five-pound package of Hurley washing machine soap FREE

The Automatic is a well-known, high-grade, moderately-priced electric washer, with swinging, power-driven wringer, simple mechanism and wonderful endurance.

See us now about these offers—or call up for further information.

Electric Shop Idaho Power Co.

Mystery! Suspense! Action!

One man spoiled plans of band of thieves who argued
"Dead Men Tell No Tales"

In order that their crime might not be discovered they blew up a ship at sea, riddled the lifeboats and escaped in the captain's gig. One man survived. He hounded the culprits and brought them to justice. As a reward he won the love of a brave.

The story is told in a powerful film production, acted by an all-star cast

"DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES"

Majestic Sunday Monday

Our continual efforts to give our patrons the best possible service, and our endeavor to place our profession in high public respect has met with deep appreciation.

Funeral Directors and Licensed Embalmers
H. L. Peterson C. R. Augustus

Ontario Furniture Co.