"You may be Sure"

says the Good Judge

That you are getting full value for your money when you use this class of tobacco.

The good, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often-nor do you need so big a chew as you did with the ordinary kind.

Any man who has used the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

L. R. Breithaupt and Harry R. Wellman were welcome visitors at the P. T. A. this week. From Malheur County Farm Bureau News: "The Kingman Kolony Bull Association has purchased 'Re-gina's Colden Engineer', a bull strong in the blood of 'Golden Glow's Chief', from Henry Stewart of Albany Oregon. The animal came by express about the middle of March." Quarters have been pro-vided for him on the Geo. W. Reed ranch at the intersection of O. S. L. R. R. and the Nyssa Jordan Valley Market Road.

The next regular meeting of the P. T. A. occurs on Friday, May 6. There is a good deal of business to transact at this meeting, as the election of officers for the ensuing year takes place on this date.

At a joint meeting of Warren Owyhee and Kingman Colony P. T. A. in the Kingman Colony school house Friday evening, April 1, there was a splendid attendence from all districts. Those who did not all was a splendid attendence from all districts. Those who did not attend missed a most instructive and encouraging talk on the work of the P. T. A for our schools, our teachers and our homes, by Mrs. Bruce Kester of Vale, state vice-president of P. T. A. Mrs. Kester's talk was full of good things to re-member, perhaps two of the strong-est points made for the improvement of the schoots and communi-ties, was the placing of women on the school boards and appointing a committee to keep in touch with all legislation concerning women and children. County Agent Breithaupt gave a short talk pointing out the close connection in P. T. A., Farm Bureau and the Schools, dropping a word of warning, "that in these times of retrenchment we do not begin on our schools! that the educa-tion of our children is one of the most important businesses of the day. County Club Leader Wellman gave a short synopsis of the work in the schools and scope of work in the county. He gave as the slogan for boys' and girls' clubs—"An adult back of every boy or girl club

Dr. H. J. Smith is shipping a car of household goods from Kingman, this week, to their new home in Washington where the Doctor will resume his dental practice. Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Richard will leave in a few days making the trip by auto. Dr Smith and family recently came to the Colony from Idaho, purchasing the E. M. Blodgett ranch. During the winter the Dr. met with a serous injury to his knee, making it impossible for him to continue active ranch work for the present. The many friends for the present. The many friends they have made during their short stay among us hope they will be able to return in the near future. The Doctor says eastern Oregon is the place and looks forward to returning to his ranch. Mr. Eddie turning to his ranch. Mr. Eddie Powell, who has rented the ranch takes possession at once.
