EASTERN OREGON IS GIVEN BOOST BY YEON

deep. Put water on the land in eastern Oregon and you can't have a failure.

"We traveled by boat, on horseback and stage, on the John Day highway. Contracts have been let for bridges, but the structures have not been completed. But when that highway is finished!

"East of the Cascades the people understand roads, they know what a 5 per cent grade means and curvature. A few years ago they were content with a trail, but now they want the very best standards; they want roads to go straight through alfalfa fields and they appreciate good construction."

The trip of the commissioners was one of inspection. The officials looked over possible locations and studied the country. They did not commit themselves to any program or any project, although they met with county officials and groups of people everywhere. The commissioners suggested that all propositions be reduced to writing and submitted to the commission at the next meeting this month.

O. W. COMPANY BUYS SEED FOR RANCHERS

President W. P. Davidson Sees Silver Lining In Business Clouds—Ranchers Going To Make Good He Declares

Showing again his measure of faith in the basic soundness of agriculture in this region President W. P. Davidson furnished the funds necessary for ranchers who have bought land from the company to buy seed to plant this spring. This he did in spite of the fact that owing to the failure to dispose of their last year's crops many of the settlers had not met the interests on their payments, let alone the principal.

"The ranchers are going to come out all right," said Mr. Davidson last Saturday while here. "Those who have the courage to stick and the willingness to work, will find themselves owners of their lands and worth real money in a few years. We have faith in them and we are willing to help them make good."

"I view it as remarkable that of the 45 new families that we placed on lands under the Warm Springs last year, 62 of them are still there and going stronger than ever this year in spite of their experience of last year."

"With the resumption of business by the National Farm Loan banks and the general improvement of business conditions, which is already apparent in the east and middle west, there is every reason for optimism."

"There are hundreds of skilled laborers who have saved money during the past few years who are getting tired of the industrial troubles in their trades and are looking for ranches in which to invest their savings. Many of these will find homes in the west. They offer the best possibilities for new settlers at this time."

"The people of this section are doing right in going after the development of the dairying and poultry business. This is a wonderful field for that development, especially with the efforts now being made to profit by marketing the products through the co-operative association. An example of the success which these associations achieve was shown me in California where the walnut growers received forty million for their crop, which had they not been so organized would have netted them less than twenty million, they declared."

FORMER ONTARIO BOY MAKES RECORD AT SEATTLE HIGH

Wesley Glenn Chosen One of Commencement Orators at Big Seattle School—Start Received in Ontario Credited

The mark which Ontario scholars at various schools have made has attracted attention of former Ontarians, who with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Glenn will be glad to learn of the record which their son, Wesley, has made in Lincoln High School in Seattle. In a letter to the Argus, Mrs. Glenn attributes a large portion of the success which Wesley has achieved to the training received while a student in Ontario. While here Wesley was a member of the debating team that represented Ontario at Burns and again at The Dalles.

In her letter Mrs. Glenn said: "On reading the Argus last week we read an item about Palmer Travis' success here in the University, of which we were very glad to hear."

"We always feel very much interested in the Ontario schools and the success of the scholars it sends out, as we feel we are somewhat indebted to the Ontario schools for Wesley's success here, of which I am sure his friends and schoolmates there will be glad to hear. He is attending one of the leading high schools of Seattle, in fact it is considered the most modern and up-to-date school of the city. It has a graduating class of over 200 this year. Wesley is graduating with 32 A's which are equivalent to E's in the O. H. S. They have an Honor Roll here containing the names of those graduating with 27 or more A's. There are eleven on the Honor Roll and he is one of them."

"Six students were selected to speak at the Commencement Exercises, Wesley being first speaker chosen by almost unanimous vote of the senior class. School closes here June 17, and Wesley and I expect to start for Eastern Oregon, June 20, overland. We are anxiously awaiting the time to come."
