EX-JUDGE IN NO DANGER

George W. McKnight, former county judge, who was overwhelmingly defeated for re-election by Judge E. H. Test some three years ago, in a letter to a contemporary declares that the editor of the Argus has been attacked by the alfalfa weevil. May be so, may be so. But we want to assure the ex-judge and his friends that Mr. McKnight is in no danger from attack by this pesky bug, for we have it on the authority of the best bugologists, men familiar with the ex-judge's type, that the weevil attacks only live plants.

SEEKING NEW TAXES

In an effort to solve the growing problem of taxes the commission appointed by Governor Olcott has organized and started work. It appears that the commission believes that real estate is now carrying more than its share and that such taxes as a state income tax, poll taxes, business licenses taxes, direct taxes on automobiles as well as the present licenses on autos will have to be imposed. Among suggestions they are contemplating a manner by which stocks, bonds, mortgages and other forms of wealth can be reached so that greater equality of taxation can be secured. The Argus believes that much good can be accomplished by the commission to the end that the burden of taxation on real estate can be lightened and that those who are now escaping taxation can be reached. The public will welcome such relief.

B.A. Rolfe presents
"A SCREAM IN THE NIGHT"
By CHARLES A. LOGUE

A Shot!
A scream in the night!
Out of the darkness leaped the phantom figure, bent upon a mission of revenge that led to the most puzzling mystery on police records. This is the BEGINNING of a melodramatic novelty that is loaded with surprises; a drama of the triumph of love over the mad theories of science. You'll think! You'll talk! You'll cheer!
