

LOCAL PERSONALS

Col. E. S. Wood of Portland spent the week end here visiting his son B. B. Wood.

Morton Barrows of St. Paul, accompanied by Fred Mahon of Eugene spent Monday and Tuesday here. They came to look over the Barrows-Ordway ranch of which Mr. Barrows is half owner and which Mr. Mahon developed while manager of the tract for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gallagher and their daughter, Mrs. Ed. Garrison of Weiser were Ontario visitors yesterday coming to visit their old time friend W. T. Cope of Washoe who is at the hospital recovering from the wounds inflicted on him by A. K. Ashby of Washoe.

Thos. J. Brosnan who lives now above Vale was an Ontario visitor on Wednesday.

Among the "vacation-widowers" of which Ontario has a number at present is George Gilham of the O. S. L. Mrs. Gilham and son left last week for Portland for a visit and later will proceed to San Diego, California before returning to Ontario.

Mrs. Hugh Allen underwent an operation at Holy Rosary Hospital Tuesday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Gerald Stanfield was an Ontario visitor Wednesday.

Dr. Hamilton of Weiser was an Ontario visitor on Sunday afternoon to see patients at the Holy Rosary hospital. He was accompanied here by Earl Sample, business manager of the Weiser Signal.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitworth of Weiser were here Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. W. Jones and son Wallis returned Tuesday afternoon from Des Moines, Iowa where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones for the past month and experienced the first heat wave of the season to visit the central west.

Herb Stewart and family spent Sunday at Tom Stewart's.

Mrs. L. B. Fry was in Nysaa Wednesday.

Mrs. C. U. Stover, Mrs. T. B. Plier, Mrs. Ralph Weaver and Margaret Potter drove to Vale Wednesday to see Frank Winston who is still in a serious condition.

A. N. Jacques fell from the hay loft in his barn four miles Southwest of Ontario Wednesday of last week and is still in a serious condition. He has only been conscious at intervals and unable to explain the accident. All of his children have been called home.

Mrs. Tom Stewart spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ida Lindsey.

Mrs. Arego Harrison and daughter Betty of Weiser are in Ontario, the latter is at the hospital where she recently underwent a surgical operation.

Bernard Rader is now in charge of the shoe department of Rader Bros., succeeding Grover Smith who has left the company's employ.

Mrs. H. L. Peterson returned this week from Portland where she attended the sessions of the grand chapter of the Eastern Star. On her elevation to the position of worthy grand matron Mrs. W. W. Letson of this city named Mrs. Peterson to the position of grand Eather. Mrs. H. E. Young of Vale was named grand Adah, thus Malheur county this year has three of the grand officers of the Oregon grand chapter.

C. A. Korten of Chicago, who twice a year visits this section for his company, and who is also the owner of a ranch in Harney county arrived here Tuesday with his family enroute to Harney county where they will spend the summer. His ranch foreman, Jack Aeschbacher met the party here having driven down via the Hole in the Ground route and reports the going pretty bad. While here the visitors called upon L. R. Brethaupt, county agent to get information relative to the ranch conditions and the advisability of feeding the big crops which are to be harvested from the ranch this fall.

Mrs. Wade, of Imbler, Oregon, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Emmet Conover, left for home Wednesday. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Conover and son Gillard, who will visit with relatives at Imbler the next ten days.

Fred Rice and family left Sunday for Enterprise, Oregon, where Mr. Rice will take charge of a barber shop.

"Aunt Betty" Goodwin is expected home today from a visit to old home at Marshall, Mo.

The annual Methodist Sunday School picnic was held Wednesday at the Butler grove on the Boulevard seven miles south of Ontario at the E. B. Butler, Jr. place. The picnic was largely attended and all had a royal time. The picnickers left the church at 9 a. m. in automobiles and arrived at the grove about 10:30 a. m.

Rev. W. J. Luscombe went to Jamieson Monday where he united in marriage Miss Evangeline Kendall and Mr. Sherman, both of Jamieson at the home of the bride's parents. The newly weds will take a honeymoon trip through the Yellow Stone Park on horseback. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Vena Boswell, who attended the wedding.

"Blue Sky" Dealers

The fellows who are selling patent right territory, fake oil stocks, mining stock, shares in this, that or the other "sure thing" proposition, are all out after easy money.

When they tackle you, remember that the really good investments do not have to be peddled around but are gobbled up at once by the wise ones who are on the inside. The safe place for your money is in a good Bank like ours. Then if there are opportunities for safe investments we will be glad to give you the information.
