VALLEY VIEW NEWS

Mrs. A. R. Albee is spending the week at Weiser visiting her brother. Mr. Albee is fortunate that his sisters are there for he is not without a cook.
Mr. Von Readen and family, formerly of this section, but now living at Gresham, Oregon, (near Portland) are visiting with Frank Henry and family this week. They like their new home very much and report all the family in better health than while here.
Mr. H. Wellman, leader of the Roy's Corn Club gathered up the members of the Valley View club last Wednesday and took them to visit other clubs in the vicinity of Nyssa and southwest. The boys report an interesting time and on their return dined at the home of one of the members, Alva Ingraham.
Thrashing machines are very busy now and there is considerably more grain this season than usual. A number are also busy putting up the second crop of hay.
E. O. Allen, teacher in the School of Commerce, one of the vocational schools of Portland, is visiting with his sister, Mrs. A. F. Burr. Mr. Allen and Mrs. Burr were associated in school work together for a number of years in the East and later in Portland High School. This is his first trip to our section and the variety of crops grown here was a surprise to him.
G. W. Dean is busy with a crew of seventeen getting his potatoes harvested and shipped. Several carloads are being loaded as fast as possible and the potato market is much stronger with prospects of another rise in price.
Mr. Burruss is spending his vacation visiting his mother, Mrs. Burruss and his sisters, Mrs. Clarence Rees, Mrs. A. S. King, Mrs. T. Kennedy, Mrs. W. Kaylor and Miss Sarah Burruss.
The Reberger & Fogel thrashing machine is getting excellent results in this neighborhood and are cleaning the grain the best of any machine that has been in here for years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, motored to Ontario Tuesday looking for a location suitable for a home for Mr. and Mrs. Miller.
The usual Sunday service will be held at the school house the coming Sunday.
