FATHER OF LOCAL MAN TAKES REST LONG DUE FOR HIM

Mr. Hurtle, who is almost eighty-five years old feels that a rest is due him after so many years hard work, and when his pension annuity shows up next week is contemplating a month or two in the Old Soldiers' Home. It was only this spring that Mr. Hurtle made application for a total disability pension that will pay $72 per month and keep him in comfort through his remaining years with a feeling of independence, a fitting tribute to one who helped defend the Union by giving four years of the best part of his life.—Jordan Valley Express.
