FRUITLAND BENCH

Mrs. Mary Ann Swartz Passes
Mary Ann Marfoot was born in Mason County, Illinois, July 6, 1844 and passed away in Payette, October 22, 1921, aged 77 years. In 1866 she was married to Benjamin P. Swartz in Illinois. To this union two sons, Charles and William were born. The family moved to Boone County, Iowa, in 1875 and lived in various parts of Iowa until February, 1920, when they moved to the King ranch one mile east of Fruitland, which they purchased, and are making their home. Mrs. Swartz had been ill about three weeks and was taken to Nurse Baker's home in Payette where everything was done for her comfort. She was a most lovable woman and devoted mother and will be greatly missed in the home which she crowned with such love and devotion. The funeral services were held in Payette at the M. E. Church, Tuesday afternoon, October 24th, at two o'clock, the Fruitland M. E. Pastor, Rev. George Todd, officiating assisted by the Payette pastor, Rev. Clyde Walker. The body was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery, Payette.

To Have Up-to-date Church

For several weeks a canvas has been made to get funds to rebuild, remodel and add to the Fruitland M. E. Church. The amount asked for is $7500 and $4000 of that amount has been pledged and it was decided at the last committee meeting to begin immediately. On Tuesday morning of this week the ground was measured for the excavation which is to begin at once. The addition will be 54 by 65 feet. There will be an underground basement under the whole structure which will have several Sunday School rooms, a dining room, furnace, and a gym of high school size with twenty foot ceiling. The seating of the church proper will be reversed with new pews added and the upper floor addition will also include new Sunday School rooms. The building committee consists of nine leading men of the community and a sub-committee of three, B. W. Grover, W. A. Colwell and B. B. Strawn have been asked to see about the furnace, the excavating, etc. The details have been mapped by the whole committee and any changes in the plans will be submitted to it. When this building is completed Fruitland will have one of the most up-to-date churches in the southwestern part of Idaho and one that can take care of the growing needs of this community.

PROPERLY RANKED AS HERO

Deserved Tribute to Collie Who Gave Master the "Last Full Measure of Devotion."

Clyde Scott, four years old, lies dying on his father's farm near Beckley, W. Va. His pet collie is dead. A vicious sow, bearing the scars of battle to the finish, is so badly mangled that she must be killed, too.

It is one of those simple stories of a dog to which all human sympathy responds, remarks the Baltimore Sun. The boy, playing in the yard, was attacked by the sow, which had escaped its pen. Hearing the child's screams the collie rushed to the rescue and engaged the sow in fight. It needs no assurance of the telegraphed item to tell him who knows his dog the details.

The child's mother came into the picture, bearing her torn baby to safety. But the dog remained. His was a supreme duty, that knew no compromise. The infuriated sow was a menace to those he loved. It was his business to remove that menace, and into the job he put his concern. It was his concern only to remove the menace, and at any cost. His own life mattered not at all, and in the end he lost it, in a noble struggle for what he believed to be righteous as any that ever brightened the annals of man or nation.

We do not know the little collie's name. If we did we should like to print it in honorable memory of his gallant conduct. He was a soldier and a gentleman; he was a devoted comrade and playmate; he was all that a dog is and that a man should be. We hope he had a Christian burial, for he was a Christian, if to be Christian implies sacrifice of self and love for others. He was all of that and he was a hero—a hero on four legs.

PLAGUE THAT FOLLOWS WAR

In All Ages Rinderpest Has Marked the Path Taken by Armies on Their March.

The newspapers told recently of the trouble that arose when the authorities of Montevideo refused to admit to that port a little dog owned by a woman who had taken it there on a passenger steamer, the refusal being based upon the epidemic of rinderpest prevailing among the cattle of Uruguay. Rinderpest is the most terrible of the diseases that affect cattle, and is often called simply "cattle plague."

It affects, so far as is known, only the ruminant, cloven-footed animals—oxen, sheep, goats, camels, etc.—but is so infectious that it may be carried from one herd to another by attendants, dogs, cats and birds or by fodder. Therefore, the dog was excluded from fear not that it would contract the disease but that it might contribute to spreading it.

The cause of rinderpest is not yet definitely known, but it is an ancient disease which always breaks out after great wars. The ravages of the Goths and Huns in the early Middle Ages were followed by fruitful epidemics. Its commonest symptoms are fever, cough, dysentery and exhaustion. Its mortality is high, but the disease is not necessarily fatal.

Red Cross Plans $6,000,000 Effort To Save Children

Medical care and clothing for thousands of children in Central and Eastern Europe are outlined as the activities of the American Red Cross to Europe for the current year, says a statement on the eve of the Annual Roll Call of the organization. These activities, supplemental to the feeding operations of the European Relief Council of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, are designed to provide the most adequate and balanced relief within the resources of private philanthropy.

Through the establishment of child welfare stations in the centers of population of those countries where adequate medical care is not now obtainable, the American Red Cross plans to provide the medical assistance needed to restore these children to a normally healthy life. The sum of $6,000,000 has been made available for this work.

"This success marks a new era in Arctic explorations. Like great military commanders, Stefansson has solved the problem of supplies. Heretofore explorers have been limited in their trips by the amount of food they could carry—depending upon eating their dogs on their return. Stefansson, traveling with a minimum of provisions, has lived off the land for months and returned with his entire crew of dogs in good health.

"He has explored and sounded 100,000 square miles of the Polar seas and has discovered new lands which will alter the map. In recognition of this service to the world, Stefansson has already been awarded gold medals by all the American Geographical Societies."

Road Building in India.

There is considerable activity in road making in various cities in India, depending upon the local authorities. In some places stone rollers, pulled by gangs of men, are used, and in other places steam rollers are to be found. A very useful machine is used in Larknow, that has two rollers, the front one a steering roller. The rear chain is driven by a gasoline engine. It has a large gasoline tank and is well adapted for light work.

BOYS AND GIRLS WIN RIBBONS AT STATE FAIR

Jeanette Martin and Dyrre Roberts State Winners

Nine boys and girls in Malheur County are the proud possessors of ribbons from the Oregon State Fair. These ribbons were won at the last state fair on club projects in sewing, corn and poultry.

The high quality of work which prevailed throughout the club projects made it very difficult to place in the prize money. After scoring the sewing the judge said that the club girls were doing better work than the average college girl. This quality was not only found in the sewing but in the other projects as well. In the live stock work the club boys showed in open class with the best breeders in the northwest and were consistent winners.

Eleven counties in the state, including Malheur, had club booths at the State Fair. Many of the remaining counties sent in various club projects, which were assembled in single booths.

The winners at the State Fair from Malheur County are as follows: Jeanette Martin, first, Sewing Division I; Katherine Boswell, second, Sewing Division II; Elsie Walder, fifth, Sewing Division I; Mildred Conklin, fifth, Sewing Division II; Dyrre Roberts, first, Wilbur Roberts, second, Elmer Parker, third, Wesley Roberts, fourth, Corn; Albert Zimmerman, fifth, Ducks.

and showing the greatest interest will be selected. The exact schedule will be announced to the fruit growers of the county by a circular letter from the County Agent's office as soon as arrangements have been made with the Farm Bureau Horticulture committee.

LIVESTOCK SPECIALIST COMING

Mr. H. A. Lindgren, Extension specialist in animal husbandry, is scheduled to be in Malheur County October 28 and 29. He will make a survey of livestock conditions in this county particularly with reference to the cattle and sheep feeding industry. It is planned to hold a meeting of livestock feeders to discuss feeding problems and to conduct a demonstration of the selection of feeder steers and lambs. Should the livestock feeders of the county be favorable, a schedule of demonstration meetings will be made out so that the feeders will have an opportunity to meet with the specialist every three or four months during the year. In connection with this program it is tentatively planned to establish feeding demonstration farms for cattle and hogs and possibly also for lambs.

FEDERATION WHEAT

A new variety of Spring wheat called "Federation" has been tried out on several of the Experiment Stations and in demonstration trials by farmers, and found to be very promising. This variety yields well and is of excellent milling quality. It matures rather early, is hardiness, and stands up well. The seed is still scarce, only one man in the State being reported as having it for sale, this man being G. L. Hoskinson, of Kant, Oregon. He is offering certified seed at $2.50 per bushel, F. O. B. Kent. Anyone wishing to try out a new and promising variety of Spring wheat would do well to communicate with Mr. Hoskinson at once, as it is not likely that the seed will be available long.
