VALLEY VIEW

Freddie Moeller was taken sick last Thursday while at school, having eaten apples that had been sprayed. His condition was so serious Friday he was taken to the hospital where he became some better and was brought back home Saturday. Late reports indicate that he is still in a serious condition.

The entertainment Saturday night was well attended, at least 150 persons being present. About forty boxes were sold bringing $37.50 which is to be used toward purchasing a Victrola for the school. Jess Brown was auctioneer but was not as successful in raising bids as he was a year ago, the highest box bringing only $2.50.

Miss Lola Rees was the week-end guest of Miss Una Armstrong.

Mrs. Grey Kenney and Mrs. Pearl Crane visited the school Thursday.

Floyd Richardson and wife visited his sister Mrs. Pearl Frakes Saturday evening and attended the Box Social at Valley View school house.

The program given by the school was enjoyed by all present and was so well rendered there were no noticeable mistakes. The Health Pageant, which included almost every pupil in school was especially enjoyed. The Play—"The Obstinate Family" in which the six characters, two married couples, a butler, and the maid, refused to repeat the words: "Thank Heaven the table is laid." A tragedy was averted by the young husband (Serene McMurren) presenting his wife (Una Armstrong) with a new shoulder scarf, after which she willingly repeated the words, and the others were compelled to follow suit.

Rev. Young preached at the Sunday services which were well attended.

Helen Wisdom visited Merle Kenney Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Amidon and Miss Agnes were visitors at the J. A. Walters home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Amidon and Mrs. Walters are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wisdom of Ontario attended the entertainment and box supper Saturday night.

Rev. Young and family were dinner guests at the Armstrong home Sunday.

John Keegan and family spent Sunday evening with Ed Ingraham and family.

Lawrence Sargent and Ivan Williams from Fruitland were among those at the program Saturday evening. Both boys previously lived in this neighborhood.

Miss Sarah Burress was visiting her sister Mrs. C. E. Rees, and together they enjoyed the box supper Saturday.

Mrs. Jackson at present living in Ontario was the guest of W. B. Shaffer and wife for the week end.

Tom Johnson who has been living in the C. E. Rees house the past year has moved to the place he rented above Nysa.

Miss Margaret Griffin called at the Kenny home Tuesday evening.

Advertising Men's Underwear to Women.

In the 60's men used to think a woman's place was in hoop skirts and—at home

Now the wise men know that a woman is more at home at a men's underwear counter than the man himself.

Ladies, as keen appreciators of Underwear, we want you to see how far this store has gone to win the buying that's entrusted to you.
