ONTARIO HIGH SCHOOL
WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET

Written and Edited by the News Writing Class of The English Department

Tuesday evening, November 30, the Pep club held a meeting in the H. S. assembly. The question of finances was discussed and plans made to clear the club debts contracted during the "Beat Nampa" campaign.

Tuesday evening the Expression Club met in the English room under the guidance of Miss Lee for the purpose of organizing the Club in concrete form. The following officers were elected: President, Reba Hood, Vice pres., Paul Peterson, Sec. Myrna Secoy, and Treas., Francis Rieder.

The candy sale held by the girls of the Home Economic Club Tuesday noon netted their treasury $5.15.

The Boys Glee Club gave several selections in assembly Wednesday, and were loudly applauded for their efforts.

Mr. Patten of Boise, a delegate from the Y. M. C. A. gave a fifteen minute talk Thursday at 3.15 to the assembled high school. He gave some good advice to the student as to the value of a college education and on the subject of training incessantly to keep fit. His main purpose was to invite as many of our boys as are able, to visit the annual meet of Older Boys Conference. The conference will meet in Boise this year and the main study will be on the subject, "The Price of Knowledge."

Such speakers as Norman F. Holman and Tracy Strong will address the boys. Friday afternoon Mr. Jones, advance agent of the Ellison-White Chautauqua and Mr. McDonald called a special assembly at which a proposition was made by Mr. Jones to the High School concerning the Chautauqua. The High School voted to put the Chautauqua on in its assembly and by so doing get twenty-five per cent of the gross profits.

Friday evening December 2, the Sophomore class entertained the Senior Class at the Grange Hall. A large truck conveyed both classes to the hall where dancing was enjoyed until a later hour when refreshments were served and the students dispersed. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

The Expression Club met Thursday evening December 2, and adopted its constitution. The club is now ready to start the course of study mapped out for it by Miss Lee.

The girls of the gymnasium classes are busy rehearsing for a circus to be given December 16.

Monday morning December 5 at assembly Mr. McDonald read a letter written by Postmaster-General Will Hayes, to all the school children of the U. S. urging them to mail their Christmas parcels early and to use care in addressing letters and packages.

Class games in basketball will be played between the various classes this week. The captains of the teams are as follows: Seniors, Jim McCreight; Juniors, Eugene Shay; Sophomores, Owen Turner; Rooks Fred Morton.

New students enrolled this week are Anna Carlson, Mitchell Moore and Joe Messer.

Tuesday morning the assembly was very pleasantly surprised and entertained by the Garner Jubilee Singers who gave several songs and received vigorous applause in return.

The Practice House work is progressing satisfactorily under the direction of Miss Wood. Three of the faculty, Misses Dunston, Cabest and Wood are living in the house which has been occupied since Thanksgiving.

The H. C. C. girls met last Thursday at the home of Lola Rees where they spent the evening sewing and decided to make the candy for the candy sale Saturday evening.

The Candy Sale held by the Pep club at the Majestic Theatre last Saturday gave the required funds to pay off the debt and left a small sum for the basketball season.
