Wednesday of this week, Mrs. N. W. Lewis, whom everybody knows and whom everybody likes, was reminded that she had reached the seventy sixth milestone in her young life and the Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church and other neighbors and friends took refreshments, birthday cakes and visited her unexpectedly to spend the afternoon. It was a jolly good crowd and a happy afternoon was spent. Mrs. Lewis grows younger each year and it is a joy to her friends to be with her.

The B. Y. P. U. young people cleared about $14.00 at their box social Friday evening and had a good time together.

Josephine Hart, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart, passed away at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Royston, in Fruitland, on Thursday morning at seven o'clock, death due to leakage of the heart. She has been ill since in July yet her death caused universal sadness in the community where to know her was to love her. She nine years of age and had lived most her life with her mother. She was 9 had been ill since July and yet her death caused immeasurable grief here.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the M. E. Church and was overflowing. The floral tokens were beautiful. Rev. Todd conducted the services, a quartet sang. Misses Josephine Pardon, Fern Wilfong, Marguerite Waite and Marian Kinsey, of the M. E. Sunday School were pall bearers.

The little one was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery, Payette. She leaves a father, mother, little brother, Jack, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

It is an assured fact that Fruitland will compete the coming year with high school base ball teams in this part of the state. Those towns will include Boise, Payette, Caldwell, Nampa, Weiser, etc. Fruitland has the nucleus of a good ball team and the Fruitland people are interested in them. Prof. Keeney of the High School is not afraid to go up against any of the teams mentioned.

For several months past inspectors and men have been working out a proposed rural route for Fruitland and word has come that makes the business men of the little village very hopeful that the route will be started about the first of the year. It will benefit Fruitland largely and others who have been on the Payette route who had to walk some distance for their mail will have it running by their doors. This is a large route to be served and the inspector, A. O. Brunner seems to think there is no doubt of the service being installed soon.
