OWYHEE

(Too late for last week)

Jenkins and McLain brought 2000 sheep to the McConnell ranch on the 24th of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Watson returned Monday from a trapping expedition to Jordan Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hite and children returned Sunday from Long Valley, having had a hard trip overland, owing to the snow and bad roads.

Most of the haystacks are present in a rumpled, green crested appearance since the big wind storm Friday. Some stacks are quite badly damaged, several tons of hay being blown off.

Andy Hansen returned home from Alaska this week, where he will visit for a few weeks before leaving for Arizona where he anticipates spending the winter.

Mary and Gladys McGinnis are on the sick list this week.

Leroy DeWitt purchased John Wall's hay at $5.00 per ton. The DeWitts came down from their home at Sage Brush Springs with a load of household goods, preparatory to moving on to the place when the Wall family moves to Creston.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fisher and Mrs. Albert Caperton motored to Ontario Monday, where Mrs. Caperton consulted with Dr. Pogue.

Bruce Walters was down Tuesday from Mud Springs where the sheep are at present on the way down to winter feeding grounds.

Mrs. Gus Schweizer spent the latter part of the week visiting in Ontario.

While riding bucking horses Sunday, Wm. Schweizer was injured internally. He consulted Dr. Bartlett of Ontario, and expects soon to be on the road to recovery.

Miss Marion Lowe, at Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., had one thing at least to be thankful for. Her father and mother phoned her from the Bigelow ranch on Thanksgiving and held a very satisfactory conversation considering the distance. Marion said there was 25 inches of snow in Walla Walla.

S. D. Bigelow and Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Pullen were Ontario visitors Tuesday.

Archie and Perry Cantrell are on the sick list, being obliged to miss school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lowe motored to Vale Monday.

Wm. Walker was up from Ontario for a visit with his father.

VALLEY VIEW

(Too late for last week)

Miss Beulah Querc from Harney county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gray Kenney.

Miss Agnes Amidon visited the school Monday afternoon.

Leslie McMurren came down from Weiser last week for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. H. McMurren.

Rev. Pearl Doane preached at the school house Sunday afternoon. Rev. Doane lived in this community 8 years ago. He is now professor in mathematics in the Boise High school.

The bonds have been sent here by the bonding company for the signatures of the chairman and clerk of the school directors.

H. McMurren and family are severing connections with the Barrows-Ordway ranch this week, and are returning to Weiser, their former home. They will be missed from our neighborhood, but good wishes follow them.

Sunday being Mrs. A. J. Miller's 72nd birthday, friends and relatives from Valley View made it a surprise at Mr. and Mrs. Miller's new home. All took well filled boxes of good things to eat, the dinner being served cafeteria style on account of the home being small. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brown, Miss Hannah Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rees, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burr, Robert and Celia Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown, Edith and David Brown, Mr. and Mrs. T. Penn, Stanley, Marshall and Mita Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Knox Alexander and son, Richard.

The excavating is about done and the gravel is hauled for the basement of the new school house. The contractor is awaiting the car of lumber which has been delayed by the storms.

The snow Monday night on the hills and as far down as the boulevard, came in the form of rain from there east to the river. The snows are sending the ducks and geese south. Tuesday Knox Alexander was lucky enough to shoot two young geese.

Some inquiry is being made in this vicinity for hay, and farmers are predicting better prices before spring.

Grandma Reece passed away at her home Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The funeral services will probably be held Friday, as they are waiting for the arrival of a son from California.

AN ABSTRACT IS A HISTORY OF LAND TITLE

An abstract of title is a short methodically written history of the title to a designated tract of land. It consists of a summary of the material parts of every recorded instrument of conveyance which affects the title, together with a statement of all liens and incumbrances to which the same is subject.

The object of an abstract is to afford the prospective purchaser or mortgagee of real estate a convenient means of ascertaining the condition of the title.

The cautious man will not accept a deed or a mortgage on real estate unless it is accompanied by an abstract prepared by a reliable firm.
