Among the larger family parties of the holiday season were those given in honor of Miss Elsie Skoogs of Portland who is a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blackaby, and whose engagement to William Blackaby was announced at the University last spring.

The first of these parties was a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blackaby Sunday afternoon, the second a dinner and Auction party at the home of Miss Lavine Smith, Tuesday evening at which 20 guests were present. The out of town relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Blackaby of Hometown, Idaho and T. T. Kohout of Jordan Valley.

While some of the card clubs did not convene during the past week, others did. Among those which met were the Carnation club which was entertained on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Emison, while on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. A. L. Cockrum was the hostess for the Wednesday bridge club.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Swagler entertained at dinner and for two tables of pinochle.

THAYER-ROSE

At Boise on Monday, Miss Valueda Rose of Vale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rose of that city and Hugh O. Thayer, of this city, were united in marriage, and they are expected home this week and will go to housekeeping on the ranch which the bridegroom's father, Otis Thayer purchased two years ago from T. J. Bronnan north of the city on the Old Oregon Trail.

The bride and groom are both well known in Malheur county, especially in and about Vale where they both lived for many years. The bride is the daughter of a Vale merchant and for some time was engaged as a stenographer in the U. S. bank in the county seat.
