MALHEUR COUNTY LIBRARY NOTES

Brief Reviews of New Books on the Library Shelves and Other Interesting Items Concerning which Readers will be interested.

Will Irwin aims to make an appeal to common sense in his recent book on "The Next War." Mr Irwin earned the title of "Ace of Correspondents" during the World War in which he had a long and varied experience. His book which has a nineteenth printing, expresses in an unusually clear and forceful style, the author's conviction that another war must be prevented at all hazards. He discusses the next war by analyzing the past. "An understanding of the difference between the old wars and the next war" he says, "is essential to an understanding of the present struggle between militarism and reasonable pacifism, between the aristocratic ideal of society and the democratic, between those who believe in that next war and those who are groping toward a state of society which will abolish war." This is a book that will be read by all those who are interested in world peace and disarmament.

"Americans by Adoption" is the title of a collection of brief biographies by Joseph Husband. W. A. Nelson, president of Smith College, and himself foreign born, who wrote the introduction, quarrels with this title, claiming that it should be "Americans by Choice." The lives of nine successful and prominent men born in foreign lands, who later chose America as their own country, are sketched; and with each sketch is a portrait. Emphasis is placed not only upon what they received from America but also upon what they gave to America. The "Americans by Adoption" are, Stephen Girard, John Ericsson, Louis Agassiz, Carl Schurz, Theodore Thomas, Andrew Carnegie, James J. Hill, Augustus Saint-Gaudens and Jacob Riis.

Uncle Dick Rutherford visited the Library last week for the first time in several years. He was so pleased with the progress that has been made since his last visit that he made a gift of eight books to the Library.
