If the Fair boosters also understood, but of course they did not. that Ben was also to deliver the necessary legislative vote to permit the Fair to go to the people, they evidently were badly stung.

It is hard to believe that the Governor would enter into such a deal. It is certainly beneath the dignity of the office, and any man who would bankers of America will rise to the make such a deal is unworthy of the confidence of the people. However, such things have been done. and it does appear from the record ial. It is going to come, and the so far made that there is ground sooner it does, the better for the nafor suspecting something of this kind. It will be one of the things for Ben to explain.

Dues Too Much?

What? The price of a dozen pack-ages of cigarettes, or a theatre tickyou 52 copies of the livest and snap plest magazine on the market worth double the price alone. Three aire could buy his way into unless he was eligible. The lowest dues of almost any organization in the country-and more work to do with it What is the Legion For?

The Legion purposes are set forth admirably in its constitution .- The Legion has no aims, policies, nor activities not covered by this preamble The purpose of the Legion is thus two-fold-service to its country, and service to its comrades. The organization is exerting all its influence and strength to the that all ex-service men, especially the disabled and their dependants and the dependants of those who spaid the supreme sacrifice, shall receive that just and fair ireatment which they have reason to expect from a patriotic and liberal country. In nerving the Country the organiza-tion is endeavoring to keep alive that spirit which induced all to respond to the Country's call in time of need. This is being done by as-sisting in the maintenance of a one hundred per cent Americanism, based on fair play and a square deal for all

What do I Get Out of It?

If you are talking about mater-ial things here they are: An Amer-ican Legion button-the Nation respects it-everybody can't wear one. Any benefits derived from the bil-lion dollars worth of legislation the Legion has secured to which you may be entitled. It has secured more in the way of beneficial legis-lation in the past two years than the G. A. R. secured in twenty. Fiftytwo copies of a bright, snappy and interesting magazine. Now pushinteresting magazine. Now push-ing the Federal Adjusted compensa-tion bill. Obtained the State bonus for Oregon and some sixteen other states of the Union. The Legion secured the passage of seventeen laws or rulings beneficial to ex-sertaws or fulness concritical to ex-ser-vice men, especially the disabled, this is nationally. All states have passed a score or more of bills. Oregon passed Eighteen such meas-ures for our buddles. Then: If you are talking of something less mater
