NOTICE TO CREDITORS

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF MALHEUR

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF CHARLES W. MALLETT, Deceased.

The undersigned, Mary W. Mallett, having been appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Malheur County, administratrix of the Estate of Charles W. Mallett, deceased, and having qualified,—

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against said deceased, to present them, verified as required by law, within six months after the first publication of this Notice, to said administratrix at her residence in said County, or with Crandall & Crandall, her attorneys, at their office in the City of Vale, Malheur County, Oregon.

The date of the first publication of this Notice is January 19th. A. D. 1922.

MARY W. MALLETT, Administratrix of said Estate. Last publication Feb. 16, 1922.

The 1921 income tax law requires that a single person claiming exemption as the head of a family must file a return if his net income is $1000 or more, notwithstanding the fact that as head of a family, he is entitled to an exemption of $2500, as well as $400 for each dependent under 18 years of age. Income tax returns must be filed not later than March 15, 1922.

A new feature of the income tax law requires that every person who had a gross income of $5,000 or more for 1921, must file a return, regardless of whether or not that sum yielded him a cent of profit. To illustrate: "A" received from his business and other sources $5,000 during the year 1921, but his deductible expenses for the year aggregated $4,500. His net income being less than $1000, A would not have to pay an income tax. However, he is required under the law to file an income tax return if his gross income was $5,000, or more, regardless of whether or not he realizes any profit. These returns must be filed in the office of Clyde G. Huntley, Collector of Internal Revenue, not later than March 15, 1922.
