What might have been a disasterous fire was narrowly averted Tuesnecessary to satisfy said judgment in favor of First National Bank of Eigin, Oregon, together with all costs and disbursements that have or may accrue.

Satisfy said judgment day when Albert Caperton's house caught fire. It was first noticed at about f1 o'clock, when a lot of smoke began pouring ont. The fire had started betwen the ceiling and the roof and was hard to get at, but by dint of much exertion on the part of Mr. Caperton and Frank Pullen, the fire was extinguished. A large hole was burned in the roof thus making the house rather uncomfortable until it can be repaired.
