Turnbull-Cronin

The marriage ceremony of Miss Minnie Villa Cronin and James Turnbull, which is the culmination of a romance which began two years ago, while Miss Cronin was teaching school at Crowley, Oregon, was solemnized today at two o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bart Cronin, Rev. J. D. Gillanders officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home to their friends here in Ontario, until the end of the school year.

Miss Cronin is the daughter of Mrs. Bart Cronin, and has lived in Ontario practically all her life. She was a graduate of the Ontario High School with the class of '20, and recently completed a years course in the Normal School at Cheney Washington.

Mr. Turnbull is a nephew of Thomas Turnbull of Crowley, Oregon, and has lived most of his life in Portland, Oregon. He was a lieutenant in the army during the war and later was graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College. Mr. Turnbull is the professor in the East Side school this year.

Shower for Bride

Mrs. H. R. Udick and Mrs. W. H. Doolittle were hostess Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Udick, for a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Villa Cronin, whose engagement to James Turnbull has been announced. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. Bands of crepe paper were extended to the electric lights which were covered with dainty pink shades and fragrant pink and white carnations graced the tables. Little Miss June Udick and Helen Marie Doolittle dressed in pink and white greeted the guests and later in the evening served a delicious luncheon. Many beautiful and useful presents were received and the girls all joined in wishing Miss Cronin much happiness.

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Friday evening by Ontario people at the St. Patrick's dance given by the Oregon Club in the Club rooms. A large crowd was in attendance and many out of town visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCulloch entertained at a musical at their home last Saturday evening to which some thirty guests were invited. A delightful program of parlor music was presented by Mesdames David F. Graham, H. L. Peterson and H. L. Peterson, and Misses Catherine Conway and Miss Ruth McCulloch. Miss Ruth McCulloch who is a student at the Ellison-White studio in Portland also delighted the gathering with a number of dialect readings. All of the numbers were so appreciated that upon the insistence of the gathering the artists graciously responded to encores. To the evening's entertainment was added a guessing game and a poetry contest for the men and a hat making contest for the women. F. J. Clemo was the best guesser of prominent personage pictures while Judge Wood wrote the most eloquent poem and Mrs. George K. Aiken was declared the winner of the hat makers. Refreshments were served following the program.
