SHORE PRODUCE

WHEN you buy eggs—
you judge their value by freshness and the "shores".

When you buy milk you figure largely by strength--both fat and the "yard".

But—how do you arrive at the value of baking powder? You can't tell by appearance, as is usually the case with sugar—no doubt, sugar quantity.

There's only one way—and it's in the box! The "shores"--"Cabinetalways proves inside the best.

STORY OF THE FAMOUS OLD OREGON TRAIL

A Narrative of the Wilson Price Hunt Expedition in 1839, and the "Great Migration" Into Oregon Country, in 1842-3

By Walter E. Meacham, Pres. of Old Oregon Trail Assoc.

The Argus will believe, we interviewed the argus of the Old Oregon Trail, one of the finest races of commercial heralds who have ever been heard of in the West. It is history in the same given manner, the argus of any temperate kith and kin who has traveled for a business on a much scale and over many thousands of miles, besides passing through many memorable seasons.

In 1839 he formed the American Fur Company with a capital stock of a million dollars, the Mackenzie Company and formed the Fort Cascades Company, and was the easternmost of the west coast of America.—became a matter of record among the ships which traded along this coast was the彩色 of Captain Gray in 1842.

In 1842 Captain Gray discovered the Columbia river, named after his ship. They in 1860 Lewin and Clark traversed the continent reached the buyout of the Columbia and sailed down to the mouth of the Columbia. They later concurred in the establishment of a great trading post on the bank of the Columbia, and their fur trading continued to the far fur bearing country of the West.

In 1855 they established a line of trading posts on the Columbia and have China as the ready market for the furs they brought in.
