The house was prettily decorated with blossoms and streamers, the color scheme being yellow. A mock wedding was staged, which caused much hilarity, after which little Miss Helen Fifer and Evelyn Lackey presented the gifts in a novel way. A chair was placed in the center of the room and Miss Turner was seated in it. Then little Helen Fifer carried in a large parasol trimmed in yellow, which was held over Miss Turner, followed by Evelyn Lackey, representing Cupid, carrying the gifts in a tiny wheelbarrow. ## MAKE OREGON SAFE FOR THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

RE-ELECT RALPH E. WILLIAMS

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL Committeeman

The Only Westerner Ever Elected Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee

Keep the West In Power

The Republican National Committee consists of one member from each state in the Union and is the political organization of the party.

In June, 1921, at the Committee's first meeting after the inauguration of President Warren G. Harding, every state cast its vote for Ralph E. Williams of Oregon for vice-chairman of the Committee, recognizing by their unanimous vote his fitness and ability as a leader to fill this responsible position.

A vote for Ralph E. Williams for Republican National Committeeman will confirm the action of the forty-eight states in electing him vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee, a position never before held by a western man.

Ralph E. Williams of Oregon, as vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee, is directly in line to become National chairman, the highest position attainable in the Republican organization.

A National Committeeman on the National Committee does not make or execute the laws, but carries out the policies and platform of the party adopted by the delegates at each previous National Convention.

Mr. Williams is senior member of the National Committee. Seniority in this committee gives one the same power as seniority in the U. S. Senate.
