

CLUB NOTES

Big Bend W's First Ball Game

The Corn club at Big Bend won the first baseball game of the season from Kingman Colony last Wednesday, by a score of 17 to 0. The Big Bend team played superior ball in every department of the game and worked together like a well oiled machine. As there are only five boys in the Kingman Colony Pig club, Overstreet has to hustle four the first time the team has played and with a month's practice will improve a hundred per cent. The batteries for the game were Big Bend, Parker and Brumback; Kingman Kolny, Elliott and Elliott.

The Valley View Poultry club met at the home of Mrs. Hans Oft on Thursday afternoon to discuss feeding, kinds of feeds and equipment for feeding. President Homer Oft called the meeting to order and the members answered roll call by telling what they were feeding their chicks. Harold Albee talked on feeding appliances, emphasizing the fact that poultry club members could make their own mash hoppers very easily at about one fifth of what it would cost to buy them. Mrs. Oft supplied various kinds of poultry feed for inspection and discussed value of the different feeds.

The members of this club are raising 6 ducks and 115 chickens. At the close of the meeting the club decided to hike to Mr. Cain's poultry farm on June 2, to inspect his houses, equipment and chicks. The meeting was adjourned after which Mrs. Oft served refreshments.

Is there a club in the county that can get up a baseball team whose players are not over 12 years old? The Valley View Poultry club hereby challenges any club team to a game of baseball, providing the members of that team are not over 12 years old. The members of the Valley View team are from 9 to 12 years. Any club that is interested should get in touch with the county club agent.

Pig Club Members Meet

The members of the Jefferson and Oregon Slope pig clubs met with the county club agent at Mr. Carr's on Friday to judge brood sows. After pointing out the essential points which go to make up the ideal brood sow conformation, the boys were asked to pick out the best, second best and poorest of the sows and tell why they placed one sow over another. Mr. Carr then placed the animals and told the boys why he considered one sow better than another. After the judging the boys had a practice game of baseball.

OWYHEE

Work was started by the county on the bridge at the Skinner waste way about two weeks ago. The bridge was torn out thus suspending the traffic over that road which is the main road to Nyssa for South districts. For seven weeks this state of affairs has continued, necessitating traffic over the rough trail along the Owyhee ditch, and people are getting decidedly impatient about it, as they know of no good reason for the long delay.

Georgia Rust made a perfect attendance at school this year, not missing a day.

Mrs. Chas. Schweizer went to Vale Monday on official business.

Mrs. Orville Smith of Nampa, a recent graduate of the Palmer School of Chiropractic of Davenport, Iowa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. LeRoy DeWitt at her home at Hot Springs.

Geo. W. Benton and family of Nyssa, were guests at the DeBord home Sunday, where they visited with an old time friend Mrs. D. E.

Tufts and daughter, Margaret, who were guests there. Other Sunday guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and children, and Louis DeBord.

Mr. and Mrs. Oee Schweizer and two little daughters spent Sunday at the A. B. Bradney home.

Mrs. Fred Green of Ontario, spent several days in Owyhee visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schweizer and her brother, William and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pinkston, Mrs. J. W. Pinkston and Mrs. Lury Smith went to Ontario Friday.

The alfalfa weevil is showing up quite badly in some portions of the community.

Choir practice was held at Klingback's last Saturday evening, and will be at Pullen's this coming Saturday, the 27th.

Mrs. Elsie Crawford of Montour, is visiting at the Ray Cantrell and J. P. McGinnis homes.

Ray Cantrell has completed his drainage ditch and is preparing to sluice off the land that has "gone to alkali."

Sheep killing dogs are at work in the neighborhood again. A few nights ago Wm. Peutz was awakened by the barking of dogs. Upon investigation they were found killing Bob Elliot's sheep, having killed three. Mr. Peutz shot one dog, and succeeded in frightening the others away. Two nights later, four of Mr. Euen's lambs were killed.

A fire which was supposedly started in Ray Cantrell's barnyard by a discarded cigarette stub caused considerable excitement Thursday. The wind was blowing a gale and buildings were in danger. With the assistance of neighbors the fire was extinguished without burning anything of value.

Mrs. D. E. Tufts and daughter, Margaret, of Walla Walla, were guests to dinner at the Lowe home Thursday evening.

A bad break occurred in the Owyhee ditch bank Friday morning near the Rust ranch.

Adam Klingback and family and Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Emmett, visited from Wednesday to Friday at the F. Klingback home.

Roy James of Nyssa, is visiting his cousin, Rolla Fenn, this week.

Willie McGinnis is putting in corn, beans and potatoes on his ranch up the river.

Kenneth McDonald and Roy Williams played in the Kolony ball team in their encounter with Big Bend at Adrian Wednesday.

Wm. Peutz and family, accompanied by Miss Anna Schweizer and brother, Carl, and Oral Hite went to Ontario Monday, where Mr. Peutz had his tonsils removed. Dr. Fortner performed the operation.

O. R. Hite made a business trip to Long Valley Thursday, returning Saturday.
