

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The school budget at Albany for next year is placed at $112,059.

The annual meeting of the Linn county farm bureau will be held on December 9.

Members of the Moose lodge are planning to erect in Corvallis a home to cost not less than $40,000.

Work on the Mount Hood loop highway within the Oregon national forest has been ended for the winter.

Governor Olcott urges the people of Oregon to observe "American Education Week," December 3 to 9.

Net earnings of Happy Canyon, the side show of the Pendleton Round-Up during the year 1922, were $8784.20.

An association of former University of Oregon students and graduates in Linn county was organized at Albany.

Six warehouses belonging to J. F. O'Bryant and operated in Haines by the Marshall Grain company, have been sold.

The state treasurer, on December 2, will consider bids for the sale of Oregon district interest bonds aggregating $231,000.

If members of the city council do not change present views, one-way traffic is certain to have a trial in Portland soon.

Bishop William P. Remington, recently elected to the Episcopal diocese of eastern Oregon, was installed in his office Sunday in Pendleton.

Governor Olcott has completed the task of signing $150,000 of road bonds which were sold at a recent meeting of the state highway commission.

Scottish Rite Masons from various sections of the Willamette valley held a meeting at Salem and perfected organization of the Rose Croix club.

Approximately 75 per cent of the Oregon prune crop for 1922 has been sold and 50 per cent of it has been shipped, according to fruit men of Salem.

William McKinley and Charles Pool of Tillamook were killed when an automobile in which they were driving went off the grade at the bridge at Beaver.

Snowfall on the Blue mountains in several sections of the Umatilla national forest is now over 12 inches deep, according to J. C. Kohns, forest supervisor.

The section of the old Oregon trail state highway between Baker and Huntington in Baker county has been materially improved during the last few weeks.

Taxpayers of Pendleton decided at the recent election that the council should not exceed the 11-mill levy, and the proposed budget of $114,311 must be cut to $97,185.

Figures prepared by U. G. Boyer, Marion county clerk, show that out of a total of 94 women selected for jury service during the last year, only 21 have consented to act.

Of the 12 precincts in Lane county that voted November 7 on the question of whether to allow stock to run at large, four voted in favor of it and eight to keep the stock up.

The Coast Power company in Tillamook has closed down for three months pending improvements entailing the expenditure of $150,000 in the building of a new and up-to-date plant.

Complete election returns from all counties, part of them unofficial, show that the so-called compulsory school bill carried in Oregon by 13,986. The exposition measure was defeated by 12,581.

LA FOLLETTE CALLS PROGRESSIVE MEET

Washington.—A conference of progressives, in and out of congress, was summoned to meet in Washington, December 1 and 2, to organize for an effort to take control of congress and to enact a program of progressive legislation.

The call for the progressive conference was signed by Senator La Follette as president, and George Huddleston, vice-president of the people's "legislative service."

The people's "legislative service," which issued the call, is an organization formed by progressives in congress following the 1920 election.

Coincident with Senator La Follette's announcement, Senator Capper, Kansas, leader of the bi-partisan farm bloc in the senate, announced the farm bloc's program for the next two years.

$130,000 DAMAGES SOUGHT

Oregon Branch Demands Large Sum in Damage Action.

Portland, Or.—Suit for $30,000 for actual damages and $100,000 exemplary damages was filed against the federal reserve bank of San Francisco in federal court here by the Brookings State bank for damages alleged to have resulted from a campaign of persecution that the Brookings bank accuses the federal reserve bank of having instituted against it to compel it to clear federal reserve checks at par instead of making the usual exchange charge of one-tenth of 1 per cent.

Last year an injunction suit was filed against the federal reserve bank to stop its alleged operations against the Brookings bank, and this suit is an outgrowth of the litigation at that time.

Mexican Charges Unfounded.

Washington, D. C.—Charges that the United States has interfered unduly in the drafting of internal legislation in Mexico, which have culminated in an outburst of anti-American sentiment in the Mexican chamber of deputies, were declared by the state department to be wholly unsubstantiated by the facts.

B. C. Liquor Shipments Big.
Vancouver, B. C.—Approximately 26,000 cases of whisky and 1600 barrels of bourbon and other liquors have cleared from British Columbia ports in the past three weeks for Mexico.

Mullin's Measure.
Mr. Morgan did not rise from his chair behind the air-tight stove in the sitting room when his wife hurried in and told him that Mike Mullins was in the kitchen and wanted to see him.

"What do you let him in for?" he asked reproachfully.
"He wants to buy a hoss, that's why," replied Mrs. Morgan. "You'd have made a great to-do if I hadn't."
"No, I wouldn't," Mr. Morgan said, as he reluctantly rose. "I know Mullin's size. I can't do business with him. He wants a cheap hoss. And I ain't got anything I can sell less'n $15."—Exchange.
