

The Argus Joins With the Merchants and Business Men of Ontario in Wishing For Its Readers a Happy and Prosperous New Year

TO YOU who have helped in our business success the past year and to all the world, we hope for your good will and patronage and extend our best wishes for your welfare during the New Year.

V. B. STAPLES, Ford Garage

WITH full appreciation of the many courtesies and patronage shown during the past year we extend our best wishes for a Prosperous and Happy New Year.

ONTARIO PHARMACY

The drawing for the Phonograph will take place at 2:30 p. m. New Years day.

WE wish to express our deep appreciation of your patronage during the year 1922 and extend our best wishes for a Happy New Year.

TROXELL IMPLEMENT CO.

M. E. CHURCH

Regular services Sunday morning Epworth League 7:00 p. m. No evening preaching at the M. E. church.

Watch Night Service—Congregational church. The M. E. church will unite in a Watch Night service Sunday evening at the Congregational church. Service opening 8 p. m.

The evening will be filled with songs, special music, stereopticon lecture, "The Six O'clock Whistle Around the World," lecture with many fine slides, a social hour, sermon with a consecration service.

Monday, New Year's Day, the Methodist church will have a church dinner for the church, Sunday school League and friends, a good time, a big free feed. A. W. James, pastor.

VALLEY VIEW

Paul Moeller is back in school again after a week's attack of tonsillitis.

George Ross loaded two large cars of meal last week for shipment.

Mr. Dean, who has been attending a convention in Portland returned last Friday.

LeRoy Dean has added his name to the school register.

A Christmas program and community tree were the features of the entertainment at Valley View Friday evening.

Edmund Griffin left last week for Chicago where he expects to attend an electrical school.

The Farm Bureau was organized at Valley View last week. Mr. Kinder, county club leader, favored them with a violin solo, and Mr. Conklin gave several readings from Riley.

Knox Alexander visited at Gus Rich's Sunday.

WARREN NEWS

Friday evening, Dec. 22, a Christmas program was given at the Oregon Trail school house.

Miss Mabel Woods and Miss Ansa Staner, pupils of the school, were very successful in collecting donations for the community Christmas tree and candy.

Miss Daisy Secoy left Friday to spend the holidays with her parents in Ontario.

Miss Elsie Poole will visit during the holidays with her sister in La Grande.

At the Oregon Trail school Friday, January 5th, will occur the raffling of the quilt made by the parents of the community. Tickets at 10c each will be on sale from Jan. 3rd to Friday the 5th. Proceeds will go toward payment for the school piano.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Bible school at 10:00 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Junior and Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.

It is expected that Rev. G. H. Young will be present next Sunday and preach, as he is to be here for the district B. Y. P. U. rally. This district comprises the Young Peoples Unions of Emmett, New Plymouth, Fruitland, Payette, Wetsler and Ontario.

The first session will convene at 2:30. Social hour and lunch 5 to 7 and the evening session at 7 o'clock.

Rev. W. A. Shanks, state director of Idaho Young Peoples work, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon session, and Rev. G. H. Young at the evening session. All young people are invited. A watch night service consisting of devotional studies and prayer will follow the evening service. The week of prayer follows. Chas. H. Blom, pastor.

FRUITLAND BENCH

The depositors of the Fruitland State bank were called together Tuesday afternoon by the committee which represents them. This meeting was for the purpose of asking waivers on their deposits in order that the bank might be reorganized. The depositors with almost unanimous consent agreed to waiver as had been asked. There is considerable detail work to be done before the bank can be re-opened.

Simple and beautiful was the marriage ceremony of Mr. Theodore Enberg to Miss Marry Dell Hollenbeck, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hollenbeck, Saturday, December 23rd. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Herschel Shank in the presence of immediate relatives of both families. Mr. and Mrs. Enberg left on the afternoon train for the west on a short trip, and upon their return will make their home in Fruitland.

Mrs. Winnie Ford passed away Friday night from ether pneumonia from an operation performed a short time before. She leaves to mourn her a husband, two girls and one boy. Funeral services were held last Sunday at Payette and interment made in Riverside cemetery.

Denny & Co. shipped out last week six cars of apples, and this week six more cars will go out from their plant at Fruitland. These are mostly of the Rome variety.

Mrs. J. M. Royston received word of two grandsons, a son born to Mr. and Mrs. S. Royston, Calgary, Can., December 18; also a son born to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jaeger of Portland, December 10th. Mrs. Jaeger was formerly Miss Irma Royston.

Our cordial greetings go out to you, and with them the hope that the New Year will be brighter and more prosperous than any before.

First National Bank,

Ontario, Oregon,

"The Old Reliable."

LIKE the treasure ship of olden times, full fraught with precious things, so may the New Year come to you laden with all that will make for your happiness and contentment.

BLACKABY JEWELRY

OUR most sincere and cordial Greetings to you for a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

REIHSEN & RYAN.

WE thank you for the part you have played in our business during the past year and wish you a Happy New Year.

BON BON CANDY SHOP