RADERS

We wish to thank our many patrons who have helped to make last year a most successful one.

Our policy for the coming year will be one of Service and Satisfaction.

Success to you for the year

1923

OREGON SLOPE

The children of Fork Ridge school gave an interesting program following a Christmas tree. There were fifteen present to enjoy the program. Our thanks to all for making the party a success.

Gordon Beck who is attending Whitman college, came home during the holidays to spend the holidays with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas were among the guests in the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Shimmin spent Christmas at Owyhee Home.

Mrs. and Mr. H. R. Overstreet and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Scoggins were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davey spent Christmas in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brown and family, who live on the farm for several years, have left for the holidays in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davey.

J. E. Brown fell off the top of a ladder Tuesday and was seriously injured. While on the fence his head struck a branch and he fell to the floor, where he was found unconscious. He was taken to the hospital in Bend. He is in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gerrie and family were among the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davey.

Our previous Christmas greeting to all our readers.

Zerolene Flows Freely at Zerolene

Zerolene No. 3 and No. 4, which are cold weather varieties, are flowing steadily and the quality of the wax produced is good, and the Zerolene can be handled at any time of the year, without worry of an oil supply.

We eagerly await the reports of the new Zerolene at the test stations, and can assure our readers that it is available for all grades of waxing.

Zerolene exclusively with Zerolene developed cold weather waxes and Zerolene formulations which are produced with the aid of Zerolene's own laboratory.

Zerolene is now available for all grades of waxing, and all grades of demand. We will continue to provide Zerolene for all grades of demand and will be happy to receive orders from any source.

A Check Book is Your Receipt

Have you ever thought that you have paid the same bill twice, but couldn't remember when? A check book will help you avoid this.

Besides this, a check book is a means of keeping your accounts current and a form of control over your finances. It can be very useful in many cases.

Ontario National Bank
ONTARIO, OREGON

 Owned bank in Southeastern Oregon