

Catarrh

Invites Consumption

It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Radically and permanently cures. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

Example at Hand.

The Pastor (dining with the family)—Ah, yes, Brother Smithers, it is the little things of this life that count! Little Willie (in a loud whisper)—Maw, that's the sixth biscuit he's took.—Chicago Tribune.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good, but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and black-heads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets." Fred C. Witten, 76 Elm St., Newark, N. J.

How Papa Encouraged.

"What did papa say, George?" He said it was too hot to talk nonsense. "But did he know that you wanted to marry me?" "I—I think he did." "And didn't he encourage you to proceed?" "Yes, he held the door open for me."—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Nobody Protesting.

"Was this decision a case of 'square deal'?" asked one belligerent politician.

"No," answered the other. "It was a case of don't dare squeal."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Starting Another Controversy.

"Oh, snap, you ought to shave off that long beard of yours. It harbors germs—that's what the doctors say." "Dear boy, you ought to trim that half bushel of hair on your head. There's no telling what it harbors."—Chicago Tribune.

You Can Get Allen's Foot-Ease FREE.

Write Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y., for a free sample of Allen's Foot-Ease. It cures sweating, hot swollen, itching feet. It makes new or tight shoes easy. A certain cure for corns, ingrowing nails and bunions. All druggists sell it. 25c. Don't accept any substitute.

Voice of the People.

"Colonel, what will be the overshadowing issues of the next campaign?" "Well, I can't tell you about that, of course, until a few of us have got together and had our little conference."—Chicago Tribune.

A Secret Society.

Carrie—I've got a dandy idea for a girls' secret society. Belle—A secret society? Do you think it would be practical? Carrie—Surely. We wouldn't keep secrets; we'd swap them.—Puck.

An Inconvenient Expense.

"I wonder why long telegraphic messages are so expensive." "Why do you wonder?" "Because they are intended to go on tick."—Baltimore American.

DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION.

Quickly Cures Rheumatic Pains, Also Splendid System Builder.

Go to any good prescription druggist and get the following and mix them. If he does not have these ingredients he will get them from his wholesale house.

"One ounce compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, and one ounce Toris compound. Add these to a half pint of first-class whiskey, and use a tablespoonful before each meal and at bed time. The bottle must be well shaken each time." This simple remedy is one of the most effective known. The restorative action will be felt after the first few doses.

Output.

Truth Seeker—What are the issues in the coming campaign?
Ward Heeler—Well, we haven't issued anything yet but a loud call for money.

The Sort of Man He Is.

"Biffers is a singularly narrow and selfish person, isn't he?"
"He is. Cook at the steak is far more interesting to him than Cook at the pole!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Over Her Head.

"Where are you going to spend your honeymoon?" asked the prospective bride's girl friend.
"O, it will not be a mere honeymoon!" exclaimed the prospective bride. "It will be a honey cycle!"
"So you're going to take your wedding journey on bikes, are you? How perfectly delightful!" gurgled the other.

FACTS IN TABLOID FORM.

London omnibuses carry twenty million passengers a year.

Korea had, last March, eighty-five telephones and 172 telegraph offices.

British colonies supplied the mother country with $100,000 worth of wool last year.

During his nine years of experimenting Bleriot spent $100,000 on his airplane investigation.

Ozone is the best agent for purifying water, because it adds nothing except oxygen, which assists in aeration.

The Zeppelin III has two 15-horse power motors, the working of which costs in petrol and oil £1 19s. an hour.

By the purchase of its coal on the basis of its fuel content, the United States has already saved $200,000 on its annual fuel bill of $10,000,000.

Good prices are paid in Switzerland for the fish of kids from six weeks to two months old. The meat is tender, and some prefer it to lamb.

The average catch at the Norwegian cod fisheries for a period of forty-two years, covered by statistical reports, is 50,700,000 cod per annum.

The British government has organized a special department at the national physical laboratory for investigations in aerial construction and navigation.

A new railway station to cost $300,000 is being built at La Rochelle, which has a population of only 35,000. It is the second largest fishing port in France, however.

Six bottles of Danish brandy were discovered in the huge accordion of a wandering minstrel who had regularly traveled between Denmark and Sweden during the Swedish strike, when the sale of alcohol was prohibited.

For some trifling service a man gave a dime to a young colored boy. The youth handed it back. "Now, Marose Billy," he said, "you knows I doan' want no pay for what I does for you. Des gimme dat ole suit o' clo'es youse got on."

To-day the collection in the National Library comprises nearly 2,500,000 items—1,500,000 printed books and pamphlets and nearly one million other articles (manuscripts, maps, prints and music)—by all means the largest collection of the western hemisphere, and perhaps the third largest in the world. They are increasing at the rate of about seventy thousand books and pamphlets and fifty thousand other articles yearly.

The duchess of Rosburgh is unlike the former Miss Vanderbilt in that she manifests not the slightest desire to visit her native land. Since her marriage to the Scotch duke the heiress to the Goelt millions has been content to stop on the other side of the Atlantic. The duchess of Rosburgh, in fact, has become wholly Anglicized. She talks with an English accent, and follows with undivided interest the exclusively English news from day to day. A year ago it was said she intended returning for a short time to New York, but she disappointed her friends.

Some fresh determinations of the amount of radium present in sea water have been made with specimens taken from the Atlantic at various places. All possible precautions were taken to eliminate error, and the mean result for the six samples was 9x10-16ths grams a gram of sea water. This is only about one-seventeenth of the value (1.6x10-14th) obtained by Joly, but agrees fairly well with the value 6x10-16th previously obtained by A. S. Eve. It is also shown that, when testing for the quantity of radium emanation present in a given solution, about equal accuracy is obtained by collecting the emanation over water or over mercury.

"The highest village in Europe" is the inscription on a post card which shows a group of wooden cottages on a bleak hill, with no sign of vegetation in sight and having as a background a range of ice-covered mountains. The name of the place is Cumax, in the Canton Wallis. It lies 2,047 meters above the sea level, "where Monte Rosa raises its gigantic head into the clouds." The village consists of four families, and the latest census gives it a population of twenty-six. "The storms of spring and fall and the snows of the winter months," says the sender of the card, "make life a dreary one, and still the people look happy, and doubtless they are so."

Anna Hawtrej has resigned as professor of history and literature in Elizabeth College, Isle of Guernsey, to talk through England in opposition to socialism. She was graduated from St. Hilda's Hall, Oxford, and is an authority on the literature of this country and England. In recent years she has been constant in a study of socialism and has come to the conviction it is a foe to public progress. She has found that socialism has been working an evil effect on the wives of workmen in England and will make appeal especially to them. "I am intensely interested in all questions of social reform," says Miss Hawtrej, "and am convinced of the total inadequacy of the Socialist propaganda to further it in any true way."

For Convenience.

The depot of Meridian, Texas, is about a mile from the business part of the town. One night a sleepy, weary traveling man said to the dinky who was driving him to the hotel: "Old man, why in the name of heaven did they put this depot so far from town?"

The dinky scratched his head in thought and replied: "Wasn't I forced to admit that I hadn't give de matter s'ficient cogitation, but jes' jumped up ter a answer like dis: 'I s'pose dey done dat so de have de depot as near as possible to de railroad.'"—Lippincott's.

Not in Her Set.

"Why should we be so anxious to communicate with Mars?" asked Mrs. Cumrox.

"It would surely be desirable to know something of its inhabitants," replied the modest scientist.

"Do you think so? From what I read I gathered the idea that most of them are working on canals. Knowing as I do how much canal botanists talk, I am very much inclined to let well enough alone."—Washington Star.

No Unearned Increment.

Gentleman—There's one of my shirts missing.

Blanchisseuse—Yes, sir, I lost one.

"Yet you've charged me for washing it."

"Oh, yes. It was washed before it was lost."—Hon. Vivant.

We have noticed that people of bad taste usually lack sense.

BARBER BUSINESS GOOD.

New Tonsorial Luxuries Offset Introduction of Safety Razor.

"To read the advertisements in the newspapers," said the boss barber, according to the New York Sun, "you'd think that all creation was now using safety razors. As a matter of fact lots of men are using them, and this to some extent does affect the barber business, but not to the extent you might imagine."

"You want to remember that many of the men now using safety razors are men who before taking them up shaved themselves with razors of the ordinary sort, and so they are not shaving customers lost to us, though we do lose from them the work we formerly had in honing their razors and keeping them in order."

"At the same time we have lost some regular shaving customers who have never shaved themselves, but who have now taken up safety razors, and with them, too, we have lost their honing jobs, and we do not get as shaving customers all of the young men who in the ordinary course of things would have come to us when they began shaving, young men who would never have shaved themselves with the ordinary razor, but who have begun shaving with a safety."

"On the other hand, some young men beginning now to shave come to us, starting in with us and continuing with us quite in the old way; the net result of all these things being that the volume of shaving business done in barber shops now remains about stationary."

"While this branch of its business may now not be increasing, the barber shop is still far from declining; on the contrary, its business is now greater than ever, showing in all its branches taken together an increase equal to the normal growth that might be expected in any business. Nobody has yet invented a self-operated safety hair-cutting machine and so men still come to us to have their hair cut and their beards trimmed; and then there is now more luxury in barber shops and more wants supplied than ever before. In fact, the modern is about as different from the old-time barber shop as anything you could think of."

Legal Information

The statute of limitations is held, in Turner vs. Overton, 88 Ark. 406, 111 S. W. 270, 20 L. R. A. (N. S.) 894, to begin to run upon a right of action against a railroad company which, without authority, straightens the bed of a stream so as to accelerate the flow in such manner that its future injurious effect on the riparian land is certain, from the time of the completion of the work by gradual erosion and the overflow of the property in times of freshet.

The contributory negligence of a child employed in violation of the terms of a statute is held, in Stafford vs. Republic Iron and Steel Company, 238 Ill. 871, 87 N. E. 358, 20 L. R. A. (N. S.) 876, to be no defense to an action against the master for personal injuries received by him in consequence of such employment, although he had temporarily abandoned the work he was employed to do and was attempting to perform work which he had been forbidden to do.

The limitation period for injury to land on the opposite shore by deflection of the current of a river by the construction of a permanent dike to protect one shore is held, in Quif, C. & S. F. R. Co. vs. Moseley, 88 C. C. A. 236, 151 Fed. 72, 20 L. R. A. (N. S.) 885, to begin to run from the completion of the structure, although the injury occurs by the washing away of the shore during periods of high water in successive years thereafter, a process as certain to continue as the annual rains and the flow of the water of a large river.

While the violation by the master of the provisions of a statute regulating the employment of his servants is held to be negligence per se and actionable, it is held, in Darsany vs. Kohlmann (La.), 48 So. 781, 20 L. R. A. (N. S.) 881, that, if injuries are sustained by the servants in consequence thereof, such provisions are not to be so construed as to abrogate the ordinary rules relating to contributory negligence, which is available as a defense notwithstanding the statute, unless the latter is so worded as to leave no doubt that such defense is to be excluded.

SMITH WANTS YOUR PRODUCE

Portland, Ore., Nov. 16, 1909.

We have our own 22 markets and we supply some others. As has always been our policy, we shall give the Portland public only fresh, absolutely choice native poultry. We refuse to use the Eastern cold storage poultry that is being brought in here in carload lots. We are loyal to the Oregon farmer. The prices ruling today are as follows:

Dressed Turkeys.....20 to 22c
Dressed Geese.....15 to 18c
Dressed Ducks.....20 to 22c
Dressed Chickens, less salt spray, 15 to 16c
Live Chickens, hens and springs 14c
Dressed Fowls.....10c
Dressed veal, up to 130 lbs.....10c
Large Veal Legs.....

All produce must be good, fat quality; poultry dry-picked. We want small turkeys in preference to large ones. The smaller is a turkey the better. We do not charge commission on anything. We will remit with check drawn on the First National Bank of Portland. Address all shipments to the
