The Redemption of David Corson

By CHARLES FREDERIC GObS

TAKERS FOR LAFAYETTE.

In 1814 Boon the Frenchman was caught in the act of stealing a coat from the never vanishing American coat rack. He was imprisoned, and the coat was restored to his owner. Lafayette was the next victim of this type of crime. He was shot in the back by a man named Corson. Lafayette was on his way to the Battle of Malheur when he was attacked. Corson was imprisoned, and the coat was restored to its owner.
