$20.00 Bills at 1c

If you could buy $20.00 bills for a copper cent the opportunity would mean nothing to you if you didn't have a CENT. Having the ready cash and the judgment to use it at the opportune time is the sure road to wealth. But remember that it takes both the judgment and the cash to make a winning team. Judgment without cash is helpless. Cash without judgment is soon scattered. Start a bank account. Begin to lay aside the one important thing, CASH. As you accumulate it judgment will come with it. Then when opportunity knocks you are safe in opening the door. We invite you to open an account with us today.

A HORRIBLE VISION

Our manager recently had a weird dream:

He was peacefully reposing upon his bed when a strange noise caused him to partially rise, to find himself gazing into a pair of fierce looking eyes not two feet away. The creature bending over his bed was fearfully and wonderfully made. The manager was mad and wanted to say "The Devil," but was also scared, and could only feebly gasp, "Wh... wh... what have I d... done?"

His Satanic Majesty straightened up and smiled—yep laughed—for he had a keen sense of humor.

"Fear not," he said in a husky voice, "for I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to you and your boss, for this night, in this bag beside me are fifty-seven hundred and sixty-four thousand golden ducats. They belong to you both. I came for the sole purpose of placing and order and paying in advance for ten thousand carloads of KING COAL—The Hottest Stuff in the Universe—to be delivered when Gabriel toots his horn."

With a swish of his tail, a low bow, and a cordial but painfully emphatic "See You Later," he made a noise like a purple calico apron and faded away.
