

GREAT ACTIVITY AT MORMON BASIN MINES

Large Stamp Mill is Being Erected at the Rainbow Mine--Splendid Ore Also Showing at the Humboldt Mine--Making of Great Camp

At Mormon Basin there is an increasing mining activity consequent upon the carrying on of the plans of the United States Smelting, Refining and Mining company in equipping of the Rainbow mine with a new, complete and modern mill and cyanide plant of 100 or more tons capacity.

The mill is to be Tube type, such as is in use in the Transvaal and by the great Treadwell mine in Alaska. One piece of the machinery is said to weigh 14 tons.

A large force of miners is employed at the mine and during mill construction the payroll will be considerable increased.

At the Humboldt mine, owned by the Oregon-Idaho Investment company, there is also great activity and development is going on under the most favorable prospects, the ore bodies showing splendid values and permanency.

That Mormon Basin camp in Northern Malheur county is to be the big camp of this section the coming summer is conceded by all.

INTERIOR COUNTRY VERY PROSPEROUS

"What in the name of Jehosaphat do you fellows do with all the stuff that goes into Harney county," was the exclamation of a man at Bend who had been watching the auto trucks loading for Burns day after day and then only making a small hole in the piles in the warehouse awaiting transportation; while the merchants of Burns were burning wires with demands or a "hurry-up."

The Burns man to whom the question was addressed answered the Bendite thus: "Shucks, man, you don't see-only a small part of the stuff that goes into Harney county. Bend is only one avenue of importance into our country. There is Prairie City on the north, Vale and Ontario on the east and Winnemucca on the south, from all of which point teams are constantly hauling stuff to meet the demands of Harney county citizens. Nobody starves to death in Harney county, my friend or goes without something to wear."

AUTOMOBILE TRIP HAS SAD ENDING

Frank M. Eastman, a native son of Boise and one of the best known young men of the state of Idaho, successful in business and prominent in social circles, died at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the Holy Rosary hospital at Ontario, as the result of the injuries received Saturday evening in an automobile wreck. A fracture of the skull and a shock which paralyzed a number of vital organs were given as the cause of death. Mr. Eastman remained conscious to the last and a few minutes before he passed away requested the few friends gathered at his bedside to attend to his wants to go to bed and rest. His last remarks were that it was to be a beautiful day for the trap shoot, which he had gone to Ontario to attend.

According to the other occupants in the car they were nearing Ontario and driving along at a fair rate of speed, when suddenly on a new piece of road, the front wheels sank into a culvert covered with loose dirt, the front axle lurched with such force that the steering wheel was wrenched from the hands of Mr. Teller and the machine turned sideways, tearing off a wheel, jumped 18 feet and skidded, throwing the occupants out and landing some 40 feet away completely wrecked and demolished.

The other members of the party, who were injured and bruised, are improving nicely. G. K. Hunt, who received a fractured collar bone, will be laid up or some time, but the others are able to be out, although lame and sore from the severe falls which they received.

M. G. Hope and I. W. Hope, former owners of the Vale Light & Water Company, this week through their attorney, George E. Davis, started suit against the Vale Light & Water Company for the recovery of $3,100.77. THIS IS GOOD ROADS DAY

This Saturday has been named as Good Roads Day by Governor West in a proclamation which calls upon the people of the state to pause in their employment on this day and to give careful consideration to the question of good roads construction. In his proclamation he says:--

"Good roads are essential to the growth and prosperity of our state. Bad roads will retard our advancement by keeping without our borders a class of citizens who would otherwise come to join with us in the development of our rural districts.

"The good roads question is fairly before the people and it is important that the numerous bills which are to be presented to them at the next election again be brought to their attention, that they may be given further study and consideration in order that a false start in road construction may be avoided.

"Therefore, by virtue of the authority in me vested, I, Oswald West, Governor, do hereby set apart and proclaim Saturday, May 11, 1912, to be good roads day. And I urge upon the people that they, upon that day, pause in their employment to give careful thought to the question of good roads construction. And I earnestly recommend that the voters of the state, on that date, study and discuss the different road bills which are now before them for future action."

RESOLUTIONS

"Whereas death has entered the home of Brother H. A. Parke of this lodge and removed from this earthly tenement the spirit of his wife Ada R. Parke to that home beyond the grave, and

"Whereas Masonry teaches 'this life is full of mournful tragedies of incompleteness, of fragmentary ambitions and successes; and yet how dear it is made by love! That alone never fails to satisfy and fill the soul. Wealth satiates, and ambition ceases to allure; we weary of eating and drinking, of going up and down the earth looking at its mountains and seas, at the sky that arches it at the moon and stars that shine on it, but never of the soul we love and that loves us, of the face that watches for us and grows bright when we come, or the home ties of affection and the united family at the fireside; and,

"Whereas our brother and his children are thus bereft of their most beloved member--the wife and mother. Therefore, be it Resolved that Vale Lodge No 142, A. F. & A. M. extends to this brother its heartfelt sympathy and condolence, reminding him that Masonry ever teaches a life beyond and that the parting is but of a brief period and the spirit still lives; and be it further Resolved that these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge and a copy be furnished the paper for publication.

TRACK MEETING FOR COUNTY FAIRS

The meeting of the representatives of Baker, Ontario, Caldwell and Boise will meet either Thursday or Saturday in Ontario to arrange the racing schedule if possible for the fall circuit to be composed of these cities, says the Baker Herald. Joseph Waddell said this morning that he was in communication with Caldwell and was assured that their representative would be in Boise and could arrange for the Boise delegates to be present. The Caldwell men said he thought that it was much better to meet in Ontario for the reason that there are several things yet to be accomplished in that city.

conveniently near the river where the horses could easily be watered.

Some time ago it was reported that the railroad headquarters might be moved two miles southwest of this city on a section of land owned by the Oregon & Western Colonization Company but the change has not been made as a reasonable lease could not be secured. The new tract of land which is now sought is owned by Frank Peterie and lies on both side of the railroad track, making it most convenient for the use of railroad operations.

During the past week construction work at the various camps in the Malheur canyon has been progressing rapidly, especially at the big tunnel at Mile post 39. The number of freighting outfits, which have been hauling supplies from this city into the canyon during the past few days, indicates that preparations are being made to push all construction work as fast as possible. On Thursday 22 six and eight-horse freighting outfits heavily loaded with tunnel timber left Vale for the canyon. The long string of freight wagons not only revealed to many residents the actual activity already on the building of the Oregon Eastern railroad but also showed that railroad work was to be rushed in earnest this summer.

of $6,500 that the county might just as well have purchased the Ontario fair and called it square.

As far as can be learned the matter of this large appropriation first came up very quietly before the county court on September 7th of last year when it was unanimously granted by the county court although nothing was ever heard upon the subject. Then at the last term of court when the Ontario delegation came up for an order for the appropriation, the matter was again brought up through County Judge B. C. Richardson when, as his shown, was the only member of the court who voted against the appropriation.

The following orders which have been placed on the county records are self explanatory and show just the manner of procedure and to what use the large appropriation is to be placed.

On May 3rd the following appropriation was granted by the county Court to the Fair Association:--

The speeding of automobiles on the streets within the city limits also came up for discussion and the ordinance passed two years ago will be enforced to the fullest extent of the law. The law provides six miles as the maximum speed within the city, and the chauffeurs who have been making 10 to 20-mile clips over the city will be arrested for every offense from now on.

Vegetable peddlers, license came up for discussion but no action was taken. However it may result in the passing of an ordinance providing for an occupation tax which would not only control peddlers but would place a license on auctioneers and fire sales put on in the city by outside firms. The object of the ordinance would be to protect the local business men who pay taxes to keep up the city expenses.

Construction Engineer D. H. Ashton of the Oregon Short Line with headquarters in Ontario, paid Vale a visit Thursday. He stated that laying of steel on the Nyssa-Houseville extension had not yet commenced.
