MOOREVILLE ITEMS

MOOREVILLE, Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Sutton's dance and supper was a social event long to be remembered by all attending. Those attending were Charles Coutz, O. Dutcher, O. Hanson, S. Moore, F. Clemmet, C. Clemmet, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neal and daughter, Mary, Miss Jessie Seward, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Seward, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCumsey, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cook and Tex Martin. Dancing and card playing were the amusements for the evening. Supper was served by Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. J. S. McCumsey. The table fairly groaned under the weight of the good things prepared by two of our best cooks. All stayed until a late hour next day, and left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sutton a bright and happy New Year, and Mr. Sutton many, many more such pleasant birthdays.

Mr. J. S. McCumsey is camped in the mountains cutting wood for next winter. Charles Coutz is helping him.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore have gone up on their homestead after spending the holidays with Glenn's parents at Mooreville.

Our neighborhood has had a revival and without a preacher. Neighbors that have not been speaking to one another for years are visiting back and forth on the best of terms. This is as it should be in a neighborhood where everyone is trying for a new home. Why harbor ill feelings? Cast them aside and hold out your hand to your neighbor. Help him along with a pleasant word, he needs it in a country like this where there are so many hardships to overcome. If the old settlers were here first, they don't own all the country, and the newcomer, trying to make a home, should not be hindered, but helped along, at least with an encouraging word instead of "You are going to starve to death." He may come near enough to starving with the rabbits eating up all he raises, without his neighbor-telling him he will. We know we have one of the best farming districts in eastern Oregon or Washington. Welcome the newcomer, if he makes a success of his homestead it increases the value of ours. Let us all be friends.

The dance at Mooreville New Year's night was attended by all the young people of Cord, Mooreville and Indian Creek. The old folks could not stand two dances so close together. All had a good time and wanted to know when the next would be. A masquerade ball will be given in the near future.

Examination of the brain of the mad dog, sent up from Ontario, disclosed not only negro but a shattered condition of the cells, which could only be caused by air waves put in motion by a loud braying noise, such as would be made by an incompetent searcher after a post office position.

It is quite possible that the mad dog reached his unfortunate condition through being compelled to claim "Contributed" as his master.

An ass can run for office, certainly, and sometimes can bray himself in. But the Lord help a community that permits an ass to bray himself into a postoffice.
