ORPHEAN CLUB

The Vale Entertainment Course opens its fourth season, October 9th, with the

ORPHEAN MUSICAL CLUB. The Orphean Musical Club, comprises the following personnel:

E. V. Williams, first tenor and saxophone; E. H. Dennis, second tenor, manager and melophone; E. W. Crum, baker, baritone, cornet and impersonator; V. F. Henry, basso, trombone and cartoonist.

Everybody loves a really good male quartet. There is something in the peculiar melody of four well blended male voices that captivates the people as no other music does.

There are a thoroughness and a ver satility about the work and program given by the Orphean Musical Club that command respect.

Some of the features of their programs are: Vocal quartets, horn quartets, solos on various instruments, vocal solos, songs illustrated with cartoon drawings and interpretive readings. They are equally at home in classic.

A FRIEND.

Sometimes when life has gone wrong with you, And the world seems a dreary place, Has your dog ever silently crept to your feet, His yearning eyes turned to your face—

Has he made you feel that he understands, And all that he asks of you is to share your lot, be it good or ill With a chance to be loyal and true? Are you branded a failure? He does not know—

A sinner? He does not care— You're "master" to him—that's all that counts—

A word, and his day is fair. Your birth and your station are nothing to him;

A palace and a hut are the same— And his love is yours, in honor and peace, And it's yours through disaster or shame,

Though others forget you, and pass you by, He is ever your faithful friend— Who is ready to give you the best that is his

Unstintedly to the end. Esther Birdsall Darling, in "Up in Alaska."
