WANTED—Roomers and boarders.
Mrs. J. S. Edwards. Adv. 4-29-16.

STOCK REPORT
Cattle
The market opened for the week rather slowly. Pulp fed steers brought 9.00 as usual, grain fed stock bringing from 8.45 to 9.00. No change in the rate on cows and heifers. Bulls were very scarce, price remaining the same, calves are coming in rather freely.

Hogs Receipts were rather light, and choice lots were sold at 9.05, some of the choicest bringing 9.15. The market closed strong. Bulk, 9.00 to 9.10.

Sheep
Not enough sheep were received to make a market. Lambs are still bringing top prices. Wethers and ewes are in great demand and very good prices are being received for same.

If you must practice procrastination, try it on that revenge you figure on getting. As a rule, in a normal person, hatred is short-lived, and thus you may avoid doing something you will regret later.

on theatre in the afternoon, returning in the evening with a new "Chalevening and returning Sunday evening. Mrs. Johnston, who is in the hospital in Boise, is getting along nicely.

The Easter program Sunday morning was well attended, being given

It Can Be Done
Somebody said it couldn't be done, But he with a chuckle, replied That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one Who wouldn't say so till he tried.

So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried, he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

Somebody scoffed, "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it." But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it;

With a lift of his chin, and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quit it,
He started to sing as he tackled the
thing
That couldn't be done and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done;
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,
The dangers that wait to assail you;

But just buckle in, with a bit of a grin, Then take off your coat and go to it.
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That cannot be done—and you'll do it.

MAY DAY DANCE
The ladies of the Vale Civic Club will give a May Day Dance at the Old Skating Rink on Monday evening, May 1, 1916. Tickets $1.00 per couple, including refreshments. Spectators 25c, which also includes refreshments. Music by Vale Band. 4-29-16.

One trouble is that a lot of people who are able to take care of themselves won't do it.

CRESTON

CRESTON, Oreg., April 22.—T. R.
Beers returned April 8th from a long business visit in Iowa. He reports spring there much later than here and seems of the opinion that this is quite the best country.

Mr. John Wood has been very busy with his wee woolies since the first of the month. W. Yost, W. Wimmer and J. Yost are among those helping.

Jack Shumway has been doing some plowing in Hickey Basin.

Grandma Schuman was taken very ill at her home. Her sons removed her to the Blaylock home near Riverside where she is now rapidly recovering.

C. A. Stoute as road supervisor has been mending some bad places near Riverside.

County Agriculturist W. W. Howard accompanied by V. V. Hickox, grange organizer, Miss Fay Clark, county school superintendent, and Marian Lowe, came Thursday, April 13, to be present at the entertainment to be held at the Shumway home the evening of April 14. They were entertained at the Beers' home.

Friday evening or rather Friday night was long pleasant one for all in or near Creston. At an early hour nearly the entire neighborhood had gathered at the Shumway home. A short but excellent program was given by the pupils under Miss Overstreet's direction. Following this Miss Clark gave a short, pleasing address. Next was Mr. Howard who discussed the various phases of possible crops for this section. He illustrated his lecture with many interesting lantern slides and gave many valuable suggestions. Mr. Hickox then had the floor and proceeded to organize a Grange. In the course of the evening this was done and necessary officers elected. Meantime the big room was given over to music and dancing while in the kitchen—mere man could not describe the kitchen—from which presently came plates of splendid lunch and many cups of coffee. After this the clock hands had crept to such early hours, that we decided it would be best to be able to see our road home. At about 4:30 doughnuts and coffee were served and about five the night was done. By every road and path we left voting Miss Overstreet's evening excellent; Miss Clark, the best of school superintendents; Mr. Howard, just the man we need to meet often; Mr. Hickox, (now we're grangers) a mighty fine brother; Mr. and Mrs. Shumway, royal in hospitality; Mr. Beers, generous with his merry times and each and every one a pretty good fellow after all.

Although the grange here now has been organized we are a bit wobbly and until necessary knowledge and the charter come, have elected only the following officers: Master, T. R.
Beers; Secretary, John Wall, Lecturer, Jack Shumway.

Friday morning Mr. Howard, Miss Clark and Mr. Hickox took a spin to Riverside and back before lunch.

A group of wagons containing possible new homesteaders was camped on Mr. Rogers' desert claim viewing our lands Monday.

CORD
CORD, Oreg., April 23.—Mr. C. L.
Pollock is quite ill at his home in Sunrise valley. Dr. Griffith of Burns was called Sunday to attend him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballou, of Arkansas, were in the neighborhood this week looking for a homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Seaward, of Cord, were calling in Sunrise valley Sunday.

Easter Sunday was such a nice day and the first such for so long that all who could get away went some place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gardner were visitors at Chas. Pollock's Sunday.

Mrs. T. M. Seaward, Mrs. W. W.
Seaward and son visited at J. B.
Fine's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edgar and family were Cord callers Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Hugh Copple arrived last week from Portland where he has been spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr arrived Thursday to take up residence on their homesteads on Burnt Flat.

The Harper-Follyfarm stage line put on a new auto truck this week, which is certainly an improvement.
The housekeepers along the line are saved a lot of trouble. Their husbands no longer have to have a midnight supper while sitting up to wait till the mail gets in.

Catarh Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

BROGAN

BROGAN, Oreg., April 26.—Mr.
Addington went to Dead Ox Flat Saturday to attend a meeting of the Pomona Grange, and then on to Weiser to see the new grand daughter. He says she is a fine girl. He returned Monday.

Sheep shearing is in full swing and the hills have several bands of sheep, and camp fires loom up in the evenings.

Our local Grange held a basket social and auction last Saturday night.
Every one present enjoyed themselves to the limit and the auction part of the program was a laughable stunt.

Father Moriarity was up and held Easter services for the Catholic people of this vicinity Sunday and after services ways and means were discussed to secure money to finish the Catholic church.

Harry Antrobus has his sister from Wyoming visiting with him. She came up from Ontario with Mr. Addington Monday.

Almost all the small grain is in now and corn will come next. Some of the alfalfa looks fine.

From the warm weather we have had this week we guess summer has come. Easter Sunday was a beautiful day here.

Too busy to hunt up much news this week.
