METHODIST CHURCH Sermon topics for next Sunday. 11 a. m. "The Golden Rule." 7:30 p. m. "My Personal Influence." These are helpful topics and with the good singing will make it worth your while to attend.

HERALDS OF THE COMING KING (By Request of the Seventh Day Adventists.) Coming in the Clouds.

We are told that He is to "come in like manner" as He went away. As He went away, the record says, "a cloud received Him out of their sight." Hence we find, among the promises of His return: "Behold, He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him, and they also which pierced Him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of Him." Rev. 1:7.

Note what the text says: "He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him." In harmony with this language quoted from Revelation, we find these words in Matthew: "And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 24:30. This language is very plain in saying that "they shall see the Son of man," and that He will come "in the clouds of heaven." Neither will He come alone, but accompanied by the innumerable host of angels.

And not only does He say that He will come in the clouds of heaven, but His coming will be "with power and great glory." The glory of His coming is further set forth in this scripture: "For the Son of man shall come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and then He shall reward every man according to his works." Matt. 16:27. And again we read, "When the Son of man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His Glory." Matt. 25:31.

As if to answer those who claim that the second coming of Christ is a private, invisible event, we have these words from the Master: "Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, He is in the secret chambers; believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." Matt. 24: 26, 27. How could language be plainer! How could the glory of that great thrilling, or that would depict in a more striking manner that resplendent and joyful day when the Lord shall return in person to put an end to sin and to reward the righteous!

The Lord has seen fit to give numerous prophecies by which we may know when His second advent is approaching. Many of these prophecies are in the form of signs, which are promised to be abundant in the generation that is to witness the glorious climax. Speaking of these prophecies and predicted signs, the Master says, "So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that He is near, even at the doors." Matt. 24:33, margin. Thus He gives us prophecies and prophetic signs which will enable us to "know that He is near, even at the doors."

But as if to discourage speculation with regard to the definite time when He shall come, He adds, "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only." Matt. 24:36. This language is specific in showing that we may tell when "He is near," but that we may not know the definite "day and hour" of His coming.

Time can be wasted in a number of ways which affords more entertainment and instruction than taking straw votes.

AMUSEMENTS

One of the most thrilling motion pictures ever produced by the Vitagraph company will be shown at the Rex Theatre, next week on Wednesday night, Oct. 25. It is called "The Juggernaut" and is in five parts. The interest of the audience never wavers until the climax, when a heavy express train crashes through the rotting timbers of a trestle and plunges out of sight in the water beneath. This scene alone is said to have cost the company $25,000, and it is undoubtedly the most complete wreck scene ever staged.

"The Juggernaut" was written by Donald I. Buchanan and produced by Ralph W. Ince. The best of the Vitagraph stars were used in the cast, which includes Anita Stewart, Julia Swayne Gordon, Earle Williams, William Dunn, Eulalie Jensen, Frank Currier, Paul Scardon and Jack Brown.

WHITE STAR DANCE There will be a big dance and carnival given by the White Star District at the Utopian Grange Hall on Friday, Oct. 27. Tickets One Dollar. A fine time promised. 10-14-2t.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH Rev. Brown, of Meridian, Idaho, will hold services at the Christian Church tomorrow, both morning at 11:00 o'clock and evening at 7:30. Every one invited to attend these services. As a little problem for today, try to figure out why some men sign their names so no one can read their signatures. There is some consolation in the fact that the candidate probably is as tired of his handshakes as those he uses it on.
