SOCIETY NOTES

A lull in social news has marked the past week, for the lenton season holds sway in the minds of the people for the next few weeks. With the exception of a quiet party or two and the dance given for the benefit of the bands Thursday evening the days were socially quiet.

Immediately after and in connection with the Minstrels given by the Ontario and Vale bands Thursday evening, a dance was held in the Isis hall. A large crowd responded to the invitation and a neat sum was added to the bands' purses. A feature of the evening was Beaumgard's orchestra which provided excellent music. The "Ontario Special" train did not leave until about 1:30 so that the visitors from our neighbor city enjoyed the good time with the Vale people.

The Episcopal Guild Ladies met at the home of Mrs. Robert Lytle Thursday evening for their regular business meeting and to arrange for some special lenton season work. Twenty two ladies were present. Light refreshments were served. The Guild meets the first Thursday in every month.

Mrs. John Norwood, of Jamieson, was a visitor in Vale Thursday and attended the Minstrels, in the evening.

March 13 and 14 are dates set for the County Sunday School convention at Ontario. Vale is sending a large delegation to the convention and the Vale churches are all working to gether to make this a banner convention. It has been definitely decided to send delegates possibly about four from each the Christian, Methodist and Episcopal churches of Vale. The Vale Boy Scouts will be in attendance in full force.

Principal among the speakers of the two-day convention will be Dr. Chas. A. Phipps of Portland, Superintendent of the State Sunday School Association, who needs no word of praise for he is a speaker known and loved all over Oregon. Rev. T. M. White, Rev. W. J. Luscombe of Vale will also appear on the program. Mrs. Bayliss, Mrs. Zutz and Mrs. Balgeman all of Vale will speak on Cradle Roll Work, Home Department and the Intermediate Department, respectively.

Mrs. B. F. Farmer of Vale is president of the county association, Earl Dean of Nyssa, vice-president, and Arthur Moore of Ontario secretary-treasurer. A call has been issued to the owners of automobiles for volunteers to help transport the Sunday Schools and delegates to the convention. If you have a car and can volunteer your services it will be a work worthy the effort on your part.
