COW VALLEY

PUT IN SPRING CROPS

Plow Team Busy in Cow Valley Country--Baseball Games Between Teams Excite Interest.

COW VALLEY, Oreg., June 5.—Not seeing the "Cow Valley Items" in the paper for the last few issues, we thought we would drop a few lines to let you know that we are still in existence. We have all been so busy for the last few weeks putting in our spring crops that we have hardly had time to sleep let alone write items to the paper. There is nothing much going on in this community but the plow team.

Miss Daisy Wilson is outting in a fine patch of potatoes on her homestead on Juniper mountain.

Earl Weaver is back to the valley to stay for some time. Earl is going to do some farming this year on his father's place here.

E. Cole is doing some farming and fence building in the valley. Mr. Cole intends to put in a big crop on his place in Cow Valley this year.

Miss Gertrude Lynd who was operated on some time ago in Ontario for appendicitis, returned home last week in perfect health.

There was a large number of the Brogan fans attended the last baseball game played at Bonita between Westfall and the home team. The game was in favor of Bonita.

Bonita got her first cleaning last week at Mormon Basin. The score was nine to three in favor of the Basin. But Cow Valley only had four of their regular players and had to pick up some of the Basin boys to fill in the vacancy.

Mr. E. J. Streams and his brother, Earl, made a business trip to Brogan last week.

There was a party from Cow Valley went last Wednesday, on Memorial Day to Jamieson and Brogan. It was a very bad day to be out. There was only one fighting dog turned against us and we found him at the Wagner place. All that saved our lives was a hog-tight fence that he could not crawl through.

Mrs. E. G. Moudy has been on the sick list for the last ten days, but is getting a little better at this writing.

J. O. Moudy and Ben Ruth have most all their garden in and will soon be through in a few days, if the weather permits.

Little Harold Phelps, who has been going to school in Baker, returned home last week.

C. W. Lauman made a trip to his old home in Grand Ronde valley last week and visited some of his old friends and relatives.

It was a shock to the people in Cow Valley to hear of the sudden death of William Young of Pole creek, who died at Ontario, undergoing an operation.

D. H. Denton and John Bilyeau were visiting in the valley a few days last week at L. A. Bilyeau's place.

All the crops look fine in the valley so far and if we only have a few sunny days it will sure be a fine grain year.

Walter Weaver will be the only student in the graduating class at the Cow Valley school this year and every body in the valley hopes he will sure make good, for this may be his last chance.

RIVERDALE

GOOD CROP OUTLOOK

Haying Will Begin in Short Time at Riverdale--Frost Does Slight Damage to Vegetables.

RIVERDALE, Oreg., June 4.—The present outlook is for a good crop of alfalfa hay, and cutting will begin in a week or ten days—to the delight of most all farmers who have been short on this much needed product for some weeks. More alfalfa has been sown this spring than usual and more land is being prepared as fast as possible.

Charles Johnson erected a wind mill on his place near the bridge this week. He believes in having everything handy and convenient in every way possible.

Mrs. J. W. Cranor has been quite sick with measles for some days but is improving at this writing.

Miss Edith Stansbury spent a few days with her sister Mrs. E. J. Patch, this week. She may visit her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Stansbury at Central City, Nebraska, during her vacation. She has been teaching in Central Oregon for two or three years.

Mrs. Ermine Parker and daughter, Miss Mary, who have spent some time with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker, left Saturday for their home at Wellville, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, formerly of Blackfoot, Idaho, arrived here a few days ago to visit friends.

E. F. Naffin, who has been working on the new elevator in Weiser for some months, says he jumped his job Friday and will spend his time on the farm for a while watering his crops.

Paul Stansbury spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Patch, and informs us that he has joined the Red Cross and may go to France the coming fall.

R. O. Yant came in from the saw mills at Emmett, Idaho, Saturday, to visit his parents for a few days and to be here registration day. He returned to Emmett Wednesday morning. Many will register regardless of their feelings and opinions.

Mrs. Weaver has had a new wind mill erected on her place, which improves the looks of things in many ways. We would be glad to see a wind mill on every farm on the Flat because they make a place look more prosperous.

Mr. Grant, who lives on the west part of the Flat, left Saturday for the sheep shearing camps of the Idaho hills to remain until the shearing season is over. He is a professional clipper.

The frost of the past week has done some damage to squash, watermelons, cantaloupes, cucumbers, beans, and all tender vegetables, corn and potatoes are almost cooked and it did not improve the looks of alfalfa.

IRONSIDE

MARRIED IN VALE

Couple Ride From Ironside to Baker And Then to Vale in Order To Get License.

IRONSIDE, Oreg., June 2.—William Quinn and Miss Bessie Asher accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Tyler motored to Baker last week to be married, but on their arrival there found they had to get their license in Malheur county, so they took the night for joy riding through to Vale. They were married there on the following day.

Mrs. Coburn and children have returned from Vale for the summer vacation.

Mr. Johnson, surveyor of Vale, has been in this vicinity for some time, laying out new homesteads.

Rutherford Bros. have been in the Malheur district for some time riding after cattle.

KINGMAN KOLONY

KINGMAN KOLONY ITEMS

Terrific Dust Storm Hits Kingman Kolony--To Lift Water Fifty Feet For Irrigation.

KINGMAN KOLONY, Oreg., June 5.—Mr. Refeno has contracted Mr. Kingman's and Mr. Blodgett's hay at $12 per ton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, son and daughter, of Emmett, are the guests of Orin Wallace and family.

Howard Hammond, who has been herding sheep for Mr. Kingman, was obliged to go home on account of wool poisoning on his face and hands.

Warren and Lawrence Blodgett and Robert Peck are camping at Brown's Butte and herding their sheep together with Mr. Kingman's.

The work on the new pump under the fifty foot lift has been completed and the farmers now have plenty of water.

Mr. Blodgett was a Parma visitor one day the first of the week.

The terrific dust storm Friday, the 1st, was rather hard on the gardens, and they weren't helped any by the four nights of frost that followed. However, not much serious harm was done.

Nola and Faye Le Moine left Thursday for a week's visit with their grandmother at Vale.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Beware of cheap imitations. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
