

VALE, OREGON

VALE is the county seat of Malheur county, Oregon, and trading center for a large farming and stock raising country. Vale is located at the junction of two branch lines of railroad and three fertile valleys. Two important irrigation districts, Warnsprings and Willow-Alder, are organized adjoining Vale, and projects will be under way as soon as possible. The Vale oil field is now in the hands of responsible developers and will likely produce in near future. Vale has hot springs and sanatorium, two banks, fine court house, six churches, numerous fraternal organizations, U. S. Land Office, modern business blocks and residences, pure mountain water supply, sewerage system, standard high school, several good garages.

NEWS BREVITIES

Picked Up In Vale And Nearby Neighborhood

Looking Over Records—Ben F. Tait, of Washington, D. C., and a representative of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, arrived in Vale Tuesday, and spent some time inspecting records in the U. S. Land Office at this place.

Called to Boise—Jack Boor, a member of the 2nd Idaho regiment, was notified last week to appear in Boise, and left Tuesday for that place, where his company will mobilize. Just what duties they will be called upon to perform is not known, although there is much conjecture that this branch of the government service may be sent to France, on account of their splendid showing on the Mexican border last year.

To British Columbia—Joe Thompson, owner of the popular restaurant and lunch stand, left Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., here he will spend the next two months on an out-of-town vacation. During the absence of Mr. Thompson the restaurant will be in charge of his wife.

Vale Home for Sale or Rent—J. H. Ellis' former home for sale or rent. There are 8 rooms and a bath; large basement with cement floor; two lots. The location insures a permanent and growing value to the place. Vale real estate prices are low and must react to a higher plain. Now is a most favorable time to acquire a Vale home. The Ellis place is well constructed and located and low priced is an especially good buy. For particulars see or write O. E. Carman, Vale. 8-4-8-25.

"Uncle Mac" to California—R. M., better known as "Uncle Mac" Diven, and his wife, left Tuesday for Chico, California, where they will spend the winter with friends and relatives.

To Play Engagements—C. A. Hewitt and family, who have been in charge of the Rex theatre here for the past four months, left Sunday for Boise, where they will begin an extended tour of Idaho points with their musical vaudeville act, playing the Isis theatre in Boise the first three nights. During their absence Miss Flora Smith will have charge of the picture show here.

Lawn Sale—This week the famous Red Table of special bargains will be covered with plain and fancy lawns. Call early and get your choice. At the Vale Trading Company's Big Store.

Go to Los Angeles—Joe Kelley, manager of the Kelley Saddlery of this city, left last week for Los Angeles, where he will attend a school of automobile mechanics for the next few months, with a view to entering that branch of the industry.

House Completed—The finishing touches of the new residence of the McKnight sisters and Frank McKnight, were put on this week, and the building is as neat a little work of architecture as could be imagined. It is situated directly opposite the Enterprise office, where the work of remodeling has been watched with interest the past two months. The new house is painted white, enclosed in a neat fence, and flowers and shade trees are already beginning to grow.

Butter Wrappers—Large enough to cover the ends of the butter. Printed on the best Vegetable parchment, with special non offset ink. Mail in your order to the Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. We will pay the postage.

Camping in Idaho—A camping party of Vale folks left the first of the week for a three weeks outing in Idaho. Members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ruring, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moody and Mrs. Carl Feghtly.

Rags? Rags? Any Rags Today?—If you have a bunch of old cotton rags don't burn them up but bring them to the Enterprise office and watch the pressman smile. We pay 2 1/2 cents per pound for cotton rags. Assorted colors and various sizes and shapes accepted.

SOCIETY COLUMN

Social Functions Enjoyed by People of Vale

Honor Guard Dance a Success. Quite an assemblage of local young folks and visitors turned out for the dance given by the Honor Guard girls last Friday evening. The music was furnished by the popular Beauguard orchestra of Ontario. Punch was served the crowd throughout the evening, and as an entire result the treasury of the Honor Guard girls is some $65 to the good.

Crandalls Entertain. A number of young people were guests at a pleasant little house party at the home of C. L. Crandall southwest of the city, Saturday evening. Cards and games were enjoyed throughout the evening, followed by refreshments. Later in the evening furniture was cleared away and an impromptu dance was initiated, to the enjoyment of the visitors. Those present were: Misses Maurine Jones, Helen and Vina Mueller, Valera Rose, Frances Hewitt, Lillian Davis; Messrs Hugh Thayer, Chas. Crandall, Millard Nelson, Homer Roberts, Percy Stacey, Edward Kimball. The hosts and hostesses were Messrs Lloyd and Elmo Crandall, Duncan Graham, and Misses Lulu and Florence Crandall.

K. P. Program Draws Crowd. The court room of the court house in Vale was the scene of the Patriotic Program by the Knights of Pythias

Saturday night, on account of windy weather. However, this did not mar the ceremonies in the least, and every number on the program was well received, from the concert selections by the Vale band, to the 15-minute talks by the speakers. The refreshments were served immediately after the program, and everyone reports a very enjoyable evening.

Bridge Club Meets. The Bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crandall Wednesday afternoon. There were fourteen guests present, who were: Mesdames Neely, Burrow, Smith, Davis, Lytle, Wildhaber, Dunlop, Dearmond, Staples, Eastham, Houston, Reed, Hadley and Miss Lela Jones. The high score was awarded Mrs. Wildhaber. Following the entertainment light refreshments were served.

A Birthday Party. Little Miss Ernestine Staples, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Staples, charmingly entertained a number of her young friends at a birthday party at the Staples home Tuesday afternoon.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

LUMBER

This is the season of the year to do that building you have planned on for such a long time. We have the material, can give you the best market prices in keeping with the quality you desire, and will do our utmost to give you the best service we can. SATISFACTION ALWAYS GUARANTEED HOME LUMBER & COAL CO. J. Kimball, Mgr. Vale, Oregon.

Governor West was met in Vale by a committee of citizens this week, on his 500 mile horseback ride over the state. He discontinued the trip by horseback on the Idaho line, and continued his itinerary by auto to Boise. The famous Hart case was set to appear in the courts again this week, when a petition to set aside a will made July 7th was argued before County Judge B. C. Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hadley and baby returned on Tuesday from a month's automobile trip that carried them to nearly every portion of the state. After attending the Elks convention in Portland they went south through the Willamette valley to Eugene, where they took the McKenzie river pass through the Cascade mountains stopping at Sisters. Mr. Hadley reports plenty of good fishing in the Cascades. Register Bruce R. Kester and bride, nee Miss Mabel Judd, returned Tuesday from their honeymoon trip through the eastern states. The weds married on July 11th in Wisconsin. There's a new dentist in town. Dr. Burrow doesn't seem to mind the competition, for the newcomer is Dr. Burrow, junior, and arrived at the Burrow home on Saturday morning. Mother and son are doing well while Dad is treating his friends. Still are the Vale railroad quarters growing and assuming large proportions. During the past week several crews have been busy erecting a large oil warehouse in the east end of the yards, and large building for the commissary across the track. During the past few days tracklaying has been going on at a rapid rate, and shipments of supplies and timber have been exceedingly heavy. Wes Caviness returned Wednesday from a two weeks' trip to Portland. Miss Rhoda Sasser returned Thursday from Emmett, where she has been taking care of Mrs. Frank Sasser of this city, who has been ill with a siege of typhoid. It is learned that Mrs. Sasser is improving. C. C. Hull, one of the proprietors of the Bungalow theatre in this city, left the latter part of last week for Chicago and points in Missouri. He expects to be gone about a month, during which time Manager Quisenberry will care for the business of the Bungalow. Born, last night, July 25, to Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Test, a daughter. Deputy Sheriff E. H. Test was here from Vale bright and early this morning to make the acquaintance of the young lady.—Ontario Democrat.
