8 p. m. "Preaching, 'Guarding the City of Man-Soul.'"

When a man has lost his appetite for food he is regarded as being in a bad way. So, also, folks are in a state that should occasion at least self-examination when they lose their desire for God.

Nothing is so apt to keep the spiritual life alive as an hour spent in worship on the Lord's Day. In these busy, trying days we all need the help afforded by the quiet and worship of God in His sanctuary.

You are invited to worship with us.
