ONTARIO STATE ORGANIZER TALKS

Honor Guard Girls Active--Auto Collision Injures Car--Driver is Thrown from Wagon.

ONTARIO, Oct. 11.—A head-on collision occurred on the road about a mile west of town Saturday afternoon between a 5-passenger Ford, driven by Mrs. Wm. Rupert of Dead Ox Flat, and another car containing several young men from Rainbow, not hitting the Ford a particle but damaging the Rainbow auto to a dangerable extent. Mrs. Rupert, who was attempting to turn into a side road, had slowed down and was waiting for the oncoming car to pass and also another that was behind her. Owing to the great amount of speed the auto was traveling under it is said to have wobbled from side to side, thereby hitting the Ford. The wreck was towed to Seguire's Garage where it is undergoing repairs. With Mrs. Rupert were her children and sister but none of the occupants of either car were injured.

NYSSA NEW LUMBER YARD

NYSSA Increases Lights and Improves Streets--Red Cross Benefit Success--Buildings Underway.

NYSSA, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Ross Soward and little daughter, of Vale, are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Thos. Coard and G. B. Wills, who have started the new lumber yard, have received some of their lumber and material and are now ready to do business.

The town council met Monday evening and decided to have the streets gravelled and to put new and larger street lights in. This will be a great help, not only to the Nyssaites but also to the people from the surrounding country who come here to do their trading.

G. G. Brown is the possessor of a brand new Ford.

The two new bricks being erected by Mr. Ennis are nearing completion. The corner building will be occupied by the Nyssa Hardware as their business is increasing to such an extent that they need more room; and Delno Gibson will move his barber shop from the building next to the postoffice to part of the other Ennis building.

The big Red Cross benefit in Nyssa was a success both socially and financially. Something over $200 was cleared. And the Red Cross here are now busily engaged in doing their bit, by cutting and making the different things needed for the wounded soldiers.

Frank Ward and Dr. Thos. Cosgrove are two more boys from Nyssa, who have answered their country's call, and left for the Training Camp last Friday.

Seymour Ross had the misfortune to break his arm near the wrist, last Saturday while trying to crank his Ford. Dr. Sarazin was soon called and set the bone, and Mr. Ross is getting along nicely.
