Wedding Bells. At the First Presbyterian church in Portland, on Tuesday, the 16th inst., Rev. John Boyd performed the ceremony which united in marriage Mr. Silas Kirtland Skinner of Jordan Valley, and Miss Johanna Murray of Drewsey. The ceremony was witnessed by the mother and two of the sisers of the groom and a few personal riends of the couple. Kirtland is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Skinner and one of the most estimable and popular young men of the valley. The bride is a native of Scotland and of a fine old Scotch family, During two years Miss Murray lived in the Skinner nome as teacher in the family's private school and proved herself a young lady of fine ability and rare worth.

The union meets the happy approval of all the friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kirtland Skinner.-Jordan Valley Express.
